Computers And Writing Issues And Implementations:

Computers and Writing M. Sharples, 2013-03-11 This book grew out of the Fourth Conference on Computers and the Writing Process held at the University of Sussex in March 1991 The conference brought together a wide variety of people interested in most aspects of computers and the writing process including computers and writing education computer supported fiction computers and technical writing evaluation of computer based writing and hypertext Fifteen papers were selected from the twenty five delivered at the conference The authors were asked to develop them into articles incorporating any insights they had gained from their conference presentations This book offers a survey of the wide area of Computers and Writing and describes current work in the design and use of computer based tools for writing University of Sussex M S October 1991 Note from Publisher This collection of articles is being published simultaneously as a special issue Volume 21 1 3 of Instructional Science An International Journal of Learning and Cognition Instructional Science 21 1 4 1992 1 Kluwer Academic Publishers Dordrecht Introduction MIKE SHARPLES School of Cognitive and Computing Sciences University of Sussex Falmer Brighton BN1 9QH United Kingdom Computers and Writing Mike Sharples, 1992 This book grew out of the Fourth Conference on Computers and the Writing process held at the University of Sussex in March 1991 Fifteen refereed papers were selected from the conference and the authors were asked to develop them into chapters appropriate for this book incorporating insights gained from their conference presentations Computer Supported Collaborative Writing Mike Sharples, 2012-12-06 M Sharples 1 1 The Collaborative Tradition Collaborative writing is nothing new The description below is from the introduction to a book published in 1911 Every page however has been debated and passed by the three of us Our usual method has been first to pick up a subject that interested us perhaps a subject we had been talking about for a long while then to discuss it and argue over it ashore and afloat in company and by ourselves till we came to our joint conclusion Then on a rough day in a set to discussion I would take down notes which frequently amounted in length to more than half the finished article From the notes I would make a rough draft which after more discussion would be re written and again after revision typewritten We would go through the printer s proofs together and finally after reading the matter in print we have once more revised it for book publication Collaboration could not be more thorough Reynolds et al 1911 p x The book Seems So A Working class View of Politics was written by an academic working closely with two fishermen The New Writing Environment Mike Sharples, Thea van der Geest, 1996-06 Information technology is changing the way we write Special features such as outliners spelling checkers and graphic facilities have transformed word processors into document processors document processors have in turn integrated with other electronic resources such as e mail and the Internet to provide a complete writing environment The New Writing Environment examines the knowledge that is needed in order to develop use and evaluate computer based writing environments The emphasis is firmly on practical issues tasks performed by writers at work problems they encounter and documents they actually produce Writing is defined within a wide social and organisational context in order to give an accurate assessment of how the new technology affects the social and cooperative aspects of authorship The result is a wide ranging and comprehensive assessment of the relationship between writing and computers
