Doing Accounting History Richard K. Fleischman, Vaughan S. Radcliffe, Paul A. Shoemaker, 2003 Historical Developments in the Accountancy Profession, Financial Reporting, and Accounting Theory C. Richard Baker, Martin E. Persson, 2021-11-15 Historical Developments in the Accountancy Profession Financial Reporting and Accounting Theory contains ten manuscripts authored by C Richard Baker during an academic career that spans four decades picking up on various understudied threads of academic and professional initiatives over the past several hundred years Global History of Accounting, Financial Reporting and Public Policy Gary J. Previts, Peter Walton, Peter Wolnizer, 2011-10-08 Covers the evolution of accounting financial reporting and related institutions for major economies in the world in a comparable way This title considers six nations from Asia and Oceania including Australia China India Indonesia Japan and the Republic of Korea The Routledge Companion to Accounting History John Richard Edwards, Stephen P. Walker, 2009-05-07 The Routledge Companion to Accounting History shows how the seemingly innocuous practice of accounting has pervaded human existence in fascinating ways at numerous times and places from ancient civilisations to the modern day and from the personal to the political Placing the history of accounting in context with other fields of study the collection gives invaluable insights to subjects such as the rise of capitalism the control of labour gender and family relationships racial exploitation the functioning of the state and the pursuit of military conflict An engaging and comprehensive overview also examining geographical differences this Companion is split into key sections which explore changing technologies used to represent financial and other data historical development of accounting theory and practice accounting institutions and those who perform accounting accountancy and the economy accounting society and culture the role of accounting in the government protection and financing of states including chapters on the important role played by accountancy in religious organizations a review of how the discipline is portrayed in fine art and popular culture and analysis of sharp practice and corporate scandals The Routledge Companion to Accounting History has a breadth of coverage that is unmatched in this growing area of study Bringing together leading writers in the field this is an essential reference work for any student of accounting business and management and history Corporate Reporting Kevin Christopher Carduff, 2022-10-28 Volume 26 of Studies in the Development of Accounting Thought was written by the late Professor Kevin Christopher Carduff who taught at several institutions including Case Western Reserve University and the College of Charleston Persistence and Vigilance Yvette J. Lazdowski, 2020-11-02 This accounting history study follows the major chronological events in the first 50 years of the Ford Motor Company from the perspective of accounting procedures and financial reporting Several key business executives are profiled along with their contributions to the implementation and maintenance of financial structures and policies The Historical Development of Accounting Basil S. Yamey, 1978 The Journal of European Economic History, 2009 American Accountants and Their Contributions to Accounting

Thought (RLE Accounting) John J. Kahle, 2014-02-05 Accounting carries with its history a vast number of ideas which have slowly developed along with it This volume relates this history as it took place during the first three decades of the twentieth century in the United States In particular it deals with those individuals who were for the most part responsible for it It was these pioneers who recorded their observations of the actual workings of the myriad adaptations and new devices which had slowly eased their way into accounting theory and practice in the USA in the early twentieth century

Contributions of Four Accounting Pioneers James Don Edwards, Roland F. Salmonson, 2020-09-04 This book first published in 1988 is a valuable digest of the contributions to periodical literature in accountancy by four major contributors of the twentieth century The four authors represent a total of over two hundred years of experience and leadership in the accounting profession In many respects this book can be described as a history of accounting thought since 1900 and the particular manner in which each author has contributed to the development of the profession is detailed in the biography preceding each section

Historical Perspectives of Selected Financial Accounting Topics Edward N. Coffman, Rasoul H. Tondkar, Gary John Previts, 1993 Selected Dickinson Lectures in Accounting, 1936-1952 Stephen A. Zeff, 1978

The Accounting Historians Journal, 1991 Readings on Accounting Development Samuel Paul Garner, Marilyn Hughes, 1978 Collected Papers on Accounting William Threipland Baxter, 1978 Developments in Accounting Frederic Rudolf Mackley De Paula, 1978 Accounting as a Variable in Mergers Russell Davis Langer, 1978
