Doing Comparative Education Three Decades Of Collaboration:

Doing Comparative Education Harold J. Noah, Max A. Eckstein, 1998 Sections include Comparative orientations Schools in context Achievement assessment and evaluating learning Communist education Educational policy Re-Imagining Comparative Education Peter Ninnes, Sonia Mehta, 2004-06-09 This book provides clear and concise discussions of key elements of contemporary social theories and their application to the field of comparative education Comparative Education Research Mark Bray, Bob Adamson, Mark Mason, 2014-06-09 Approaches and methods in comparative education are of obvious importance but do not always receive adequate attention This second edition of a well received book containing thoroughly updated and additional material contributes new insights within the longstanding traditions of the field A particular feature is the focus on different units of analysis Individual chapters compare places systems times cultures values policies curricula and other units These chapters are contextualised within broader analytical frameworks which identify the purposes and strengths of the field The book includes a focus on intra national as well as cross national comparisons and highlights the value of approaching themes from different angles As already demonstrated by the first edition of the book the work will be of great value not only to producers of comparative education research but also to users who wish to understand more thoroughly the parameters and value of the field International Handbook of Comparative Education Robert Cowen, Andreas M. Kazamias, 2009-08-22 A big project like this Handbook means that you incur debts and not only to your authors and your publisher As editors we along with our colleague Elaine Unterhalter who edited the section on postcolonialism would like to thank most warmly those authors who delivered on time and who did not fuss but just got on and did a r rate job We would also like to thank all authors who did deliver which was almost everyone we asked We know that some of our authors worked in very dif cult private circumstances as they were nishing their chapters and we hope the publication of the Volumes will later be for them a happy reminder of dif culties and disasters overcome The only sad theme is that some very close colleagues with whom we were wo ing and for whom we had the greatest respect and liking became very ill and died while the volumes were being prepared We decided to ask for copyright permissions to publish something of theirs These permissions were graciously given by two major journals and with the agreement also of our publishers Springer Rolland Paulston and Terry McLaughlin have examples of their writing in this Handbook A Companion to Research in Education Alan D. Reid, E. Paul Hart, Michael A. Peters, 2013-11-11 This volume offers a unique commentary on the diverse ways that educational inquiry is conceived designed and critiqued An international team of scholars examines cross cutting themes of how research in education is conceptualised characterised contextualised legitimated and represented Contributions include specially commissioned essays critical commentaries vignettes dialogues and cases Each section discusses the significance of a complex terrain of ideas and critiques that can inform thinking and practice in educational research The result is a thorough and accessible volume that offers fresh insights into the perspectives and challenges that shape diverse genres of research in education

Globalization Nicholas Sun-keung Pang, 2006 Bringing together a group of international authors this book attempts to examine the effects of globalization on educational policies and practices under the following themes 1 the roles of educational research in the era of globalization and how comparative education can contribute to such investigation 2 the relationships between the development of higher education and globalization in different countries and 3 the impacts of globalization on school education and how schools can respond to the challenges ahead

International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda, 2005-12-05 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels

International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee, Phillip Brown, A. Lin Goodwin, Andy Green, 2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world

A Tribute to David N. Wilson, 2010-01-01 This volume was commissioned by the World Council of Comparative Education Societies in memory of their Past President David N Wilson who died on December 8 2006 Professor Wilson was also President of the Comparative and International Education Society of Canada the Comparative and International Education Society US and the International Society for Educational Planning A call for papers was sent out to his colleagues worldwide and many of his colleagues friends and former students contributed chapters to this book David N Wilson was educated at Syracuse University as an educational planner and he had a lifelong career at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto His main interests are reflected in the five major themes in this book Africa and Development Technical and Vocational Education and Training Cross Cultural Issues Policy Development and Comparative Education Each author places his or her work firmly within these areas of interest and explains how their work or life experiences were influenced by him Several of his children also contributed to the Introduction and Crain Soudien the 2007 2010 President of the WCCES wrote the Preface Together all of the chapters provide a fitting tribute to a man whose heart in the words of his former student Suwanda Sugunasiri was always clamouring for a better world This work was supported financially by the Comparative International and Development Education Centre at OISE University of Toronto and morally by his colleagues in every part of the world

Comparative Education Mark Bray,2004 郭建强,2000 Education in China and Abroad Mingyuan Gu,2001 Gu Mingyuan is one of China s most distinguished specialists in the field of comparative education This book presents a collection of Professor Gu s writings over a 20 year period from the early 1980s The work shows the development of the field during a period of dramatic changes Comparative Education Patricia K. Kubow,Paul R. Fossum,2007 This is a core text for graduate level Comparative Education courses With its cross cultural issues oriented approach Comparative Education introduces K 12 educational systems worldwide Readers are invited to consider current educational issues both at home and abroad while developing global perspectives and skills of comparative inquiry to use their own reflective classroom teaching Chapters on theory in comparative education frameworks for analyzing educational issues and globalization s implications for education explore several key issues in depth purposes of schooling educational access and opportunity education accountability and authority and teacher professionalism This book takes an issues based approach rather than a country based approach A major purpose of this book is to widen the field of comparative education s influence by articulating the relevance of comparative education to include a larger practitioner oriented audience Education and Political Transition Mark Bray,W. O. Lee,2001 This edition throws light on the links between education and political transition in a dynamic part of the world Themes addressed by the book include globalization internationalization and localization democratization and nationalization and liberal versus democratic approaches Building Alliances Maria Manzon,2004 A monograph exploring the evolution of parental and community partnerships in education in Hong Kong and Singapore and the local and global forces that have shaped those partnerships It focuses on the work of the Committee on Home School Co operation CHSC in Hong Kong and Community and Parents in Support of Schools COMPASS in Singapore Values Education for Dynamic Societies William K. Cummings,Maria Teresa Tatto,John N. Hawkins,2001 Social changes have made education an important topic for academics policy makers and practitioners in all parts of the world This book examines values education in a diverse set of societies Some are large countries like the USA while others like Singapore are smaller but no less complex Bridging Worlds David R. Boorer,2010 Education and Society in Hong Kong and Macau Mark Bray,Ramsey Koo,1999 Hong Kong and Macau have much in common Yet in education for reasons which are analysed in this book they are very different The over arching theme of the book on continuity and change is particularly pertinent following the transition of the two societies to the post colonial era Childhood Socialization Robert Alan LeVine,2003 An analysis of the socialization of the child in diverse cultures focusing on parent child relationships enculturation and child development under changing educational conditions The author examines intersections among patterns of childhood experience cultural values and institutional change Education and the Politics of Language Thomas Clayton,2000 Language policies and practices are controversial in many parts of the world and are an important focus for comparative study in the field of education This book makes a major contribution to conceptual debates and understanding The book is grounded in the broad international literature on this topic and presents deep insights from the case of Cambodia during the decade from 1979 During this period key elements of Cambodia s governance were controlled by the authorities in neighboring Vietnam The type of linguistic and cultural dominance brought by this control was substantially different from that in most other parts of the world As noted by Mark Ginsburg in the Foreword Clayton s analysis of hegemony and pragmatism will attract a broad audience in the fields of language policy studies and comparative education as well as among scholars concerned specifically with Cambodia
