Doing It Their Way Homebased Education And Autonomous Learning:

Doing it Their Way Jan Fortune-Wood,2000 Transitions in the Early Years Hilary Fabian,Aline-Wendy Dunlop,2002 By the time young children enter statutory education they may have already attended a number of different educational settings from entry to group settings outside home to joining playgroup or nursery school Each of these experiences is likely to affect children s capacity to adjust and to learn This book focuses on children s experiences of personal and curricular transitions in early childhood The authors are all academics with international reputations in the field of early childhood education They draw on their research in Europe Australasia and the USA to consider issues such as the optimum environment and appropriate pedagogy for young children s learning how children parents and educators cope with the transition from home to the first educational settings the ways in which professionals can better support and empower children in transition The perspectives of children parents and early years educators are all considered and case study examples are used throughout This book will be essential reading for anyone involved in working with young children and their families including students on early years courses early years practitioners and early years policy makers Educating Your Child at Home Alan Thomas,Jane Lowe,2002-05-01 What does home education involve What are the advantages and disadvantages How can you decide whether it is right for your child If it is right how do you go about it And where can you go for help advice for information This practical self help book for parents provides a one stop resource for parents contemplating or embarking on home education with their children This book helps parents to decide if home education will work for their family provides information on the first steps to home education and answers parents most common questions provides guidance as to subjects and curriculum methods of teaching and how to deal with special circumstances acts as parenting guide to parents with children in school to help support their children s learning outside of school helps more experienced home educators refine their own approaches to their children s learning Information Literacy: Moving Toward Sustainability Serap Kurbanoglu,Joumana Boustany,Sonja Špiranec,Esther Grassian,Diane Mizrachi,Loriene Roy,2016-01-02 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Third European Conference on Information Literacy ECIL 2015 held in Tallinn Estonia in October 2015 The 61 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 226 submissions The papers are organized in topical sections on information literacy environment and sustainability workplace information literacy and knowledge management ICT competences and digital literacy copyright literacy other literacies information literacy instruction teaching and learning information literacy information literacy games and gamification information need information behavior and use reading preference print vs electronic information literacy in higher education scholarly competencies information literacy libraries and librarians information literacy in different context Transitions in the Early Years Aline-Wendy Dunlop,Hilary Fabian,2002-11 The contributors of this book seek to find how children cope with transition from home to the first settings of their education and whether there are ways in which professionals can better support and empower children in transition The Face of Home-based Education 1 Mike Fortune-Wood,2005 The first in a series of publications following the life of an extensive programme of research into home based education initiated by the Centre For Personalised Education Trust Home based educating families provide the context in which personalised learning is most likely to be found so the Trust has made this a top priority in its research programme In 2002 after commissioning a feasibility study into research on home based education the Trust decided to commission a full research project The first set of results are contained in this book Bound to be Free Jan Fortune-Wood,2001 In a radical rethinking of compulsory education this book written by a proud parent and home educator of four explodes the myth that state education is free education arguing that institutional education not only bears a significant financial cost but is detrimental to the freedom and autonomy of children parents or members of society alike The author proposes that home education is a salient positive and critical alternative to paying the costs of institutional education as it promotes autonomy and freedom in education as well as in life Personalised Learning Mark Webster,2008 Personalised learning is an idea which puts the learner in the driving seat It challenges the shallow version of learners as mere receivers as promoted within the current education system and proposes a different approach whereby learners themselves manage their own intake of information This guide addresses issues of key importance to both learners and educators from schools and home based settings to community and adult education work Transformation of learning and teaching in rehabilitation sciences Dawn V. Ernstzen, Lee-Ann J. Jacobs-Nzuzi Khuabi, Faeza Bardien, 2023-03-01 This is the second book in the Health Functioning and Technology series The focus of this book is on teaching learning and assessment in rehabilitation education within the African context The primary contributors to the book are authors from occupational therapy physiotherapy and speech language therapy in South Africa The authors discuss local contextual drivers for renewing rehabilitation professions curricula that support graduates in becoming competent socially accountable and dynamic The foundational element of the chapters in the book is the African context and evidence informed educational practice We include the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on teaching learning student support and the integration of technology to assist in achieving the goals of the curricula Through the different themes of transformative learning curriculum renewal technology for learning and clinical training key topics are covered on responsive curricula leadership interprofessional education clinical competence critical consciousness peer teaching and learning learning technologies student support and emergency remote teaching and learning Children Learning at Home Julie Webb,1990 Offers a review of the historical legal and theoretical background to home education in Britain Using data from interviews with home educating families and other interested parties Webb examines the issues of home based education which in turn illuminates aspects of orthodox educational systems Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,2001 Home Economics Teacher Education ,1985 Resources in Education ,1997 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 Comparing Learning Systems Roland Meighan,2005 An examination of learning systems available in modern society with an emphasis on the home learning environment Researcher Roland Meigham leads a discussion of differing types of learning system to the claim that home based education may be the next mainstream education type after the flaws inherent in the current totalitarian learning environment have become apparent He examines the home learning model from the viewpoint of a qualified observer aiming to show that generally highly achieving home learners are creating the next learning system The Journal of Home Economics ,1927

Those Unschooled Minds Julie Webb,1999 A collection of interviews with 20 home educated people now in their twenties and thirties examining whether the subjects feel their education is beneficial or not RSA Journal Royal Society of Arts (Great Britain),1996 Rain TRANET. ,1988 Exceptional Child Education Abstracts ,1976
