Calgary's Grand Story:

Calgary's Grand Story Donald B. Smith, 2005 Calgary was a boomtown of 50 000 people in 1912 the year the Lougheed Building and the adjacent Grand Theatre were built Through the great days of Vaudeville and classic cinema through the Depression two world wars and the oil and gas boom the Lougheed and the Grand were cornerstones of downtown Calgary As the city grew up around them questions about their future arose Complemented by over 140 historical images Calgary's Grand Story is a fascinating tribute to the Lougheed and the Grand and celebrates their unrivalled position in the city's political economic and cultural history

Reel Time Robert Morris Seiler, Tamara Palmer Seiler, 2013 In this authoritative work Seiler and Seiler argue that the establishment and development of moviegoing and movie exhibition in Prairie Canada is best understood in the context of changing late nineteenth century and early twentieth century social economic and technological developments From the first entrepreneurs who attempted to lure customers into movie exhibition halls to the digital revolution and its impact on moviegoing Reel Time highlights the pivotal role of amusement venues in shaping the leisure activities of working and middle class people across North America As marketing efforts the lavish interiors of the movie palace and the romantic view of the local movie theatre concealed a competitive environment in which producers exhibitors and distributors tried to monopolize the industry and drive their rivals out of business The pitched battles and power struggles between national movie theatre chains took place at the same time that movie exhibitors launched campaigns to reassure moviegoers that theatres were no longer the unclean and immoral places of amusement of yesteryear Under the leadership of impresarios the movie theatre rose up from these attacks to become an important social and cultural centre one deemed suitable for women and children An innovative examination of moviegoing as a social practice and movie exhibition as a commercial enterprise Reel Time depicts how the industry shaped the development of the Canadian Prairie West and propelled the region into the modern era

Development Derailed Max Foran, 2013-11-01 In June of 1962 the Canadian Pacific Railway announced a proposal to redevelop part of its reserved land in the heart of downtown Calgary In an effort to bolster its waning revenues and to redefine its urban presence the CPR proposed a multimillion dollar development project that included retail office and convention facilities along with a major transportation centre With visions of enhanced tax revenues increased land values and new investment opportunities Calgary's political and business leaders greeted the proposal with excitement Over the following year the scope of the project expanded growing to a scale never before seen in Canada The plan took official form through an agreement between the City of Calgary and the railway company to develop a much larger area of land and to reroute or remove the railway tracks from the downtown area a grand design for reshaping Calgary's urban core In 1964 amid bickering and a failed negotiating process the project came to an abrupt end What caused this promising partnership between the nation's leading corporation and the burgeoning city of Calgary to collapse What in economic terms was perceived to be a win-win situation for both parties fell prey to a conflict between corporate rigidity and an unorganized ill informed and over enthusiastic civic administration and city council Drawing on the private records of Rod Sykes the CPR s onsite negotiator and later Calgary s mayor Foran unravels the fascinating story of how politics ultimately undermined promise

Oil's Deep State Kevin Taft,2017-10-06 Why have democratic governments failed to take serious steps to reduce carbon emissions despite dire warnings and compelling evidence of the profound and growing threat posed by global warming Most of the writing on global warming is by scientists academics environmentalists and journalists Kevin Taft a former leader of the opposition in Alberta brings a fresh perspective through the insight he gained as an elected politician who had an insider s eyewitness view of the role of the oil industry His answer in brief The oil industry has captured key democratic institutions in both Alberta and Ottawa Taft begins his book with a perceptive observer s account of a recent court case in Ottawa which laid bare the tactics and techniques of the industry its insiders and lobbyists He casts dramatic new light on exactly how corporate lobbyists politicians bureaucrats universities and other organizations are working together to pursue the oil industry s agenda He offers a brisk tour of the recent work of scholars who have developed the concepts of the deep state and institutional capture to understand how one rich industry can override the public interest Taft views global warming and weakened democracy as two symptoms of the same problem the loss of democratic institutions to corporate influence and control He sees citizen engagement and direct action by the public as the only response that can unravel big oil s deep state

Metis Pioneers Doris Jeanne MacKinnon,2018-03-15 In Metis Pioneers Doris Jeanne MacKinnon compares the survival strategies of two Metis women born during the fur trade one from the French speaking free trade tradition and one from the English speaking Hudson s Bay Company tradition who settled in southern Alberta as the Canadian West transitioned to a sedentary agricultural and industrial economy MacKinnon provides rare insight into their lives demonstrating the contributions Metis women made to the building of the Prairie West This is a compelling tale of two women s acts of quiet resistance in the final days of the British Empire

Alberta Formed - Alberta Transformed Alberta 2005 Centennial History Society,2006-04-18 Alberta Formed Alberta Transformed is a two volume set spanning a remarkable 12 000 years of history and showcasing the work of 34 of Alberta s most respected scholars Volume 1 sets the stage from human beginnings in Alberta to the eve of Alberta s inauguration as a province in 1905 while Volume 2 takes readers through the twentieth century and up to the 2005 centennial

The Calgary Project Beverly Ann Sandalack,Andrei Nicolai,2006 Focuses on the culmination of five years of research and observation in the study of this prairie metropolis This title looks at the city of Calgary not only because of its phenomenal growth but also to consider the premise that the evolution of any city reflects the ideology and cultural values of its inhabitants

Great Plains Quarterly ,2006 Aberdeen-Angus Journal ,1927 Engineering News-record ,1916 Icon, Brand, Myth Maxwell Foran,2008 This book investigates the meanings and iconography of the Stampede an invented tradition that takes over the city of Calgary for 10 days every July Since 1923 archetypal Cowboys and Indians are seen again at the chuckwagon races on the midway and throughout Calgary Each essay in this collection examines a facet of the experience from the images on advertising posters to the ritual of the annual parade This study of the Calgary Stampede as a social phenomenon reveals the history and sociology of the city of Calgary as a component of the social construction of identity for western Canada as a whole

BOOK JACKET Encyclopaedia Britannica: Bisharin-Calgary Hugh Chisholm,1910 This eleventh edition was developed during the encyclopaedia s transition from a British to an American publication Some of its articles were written by the best known scholars of the time and it is considered to be a landmark encyclopaedia for scholarship and literary style The Encyclopaedia Britannica: Bisharin-Calgary ,1910 The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained with its volumes It is especially strong in its biographical entries These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars The Guardian <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog/2012/apr/10/encyclopedia-britannica-11th-edition> The Encyclopædia Britannica: Bisharin-Calgary ,1910 Calgary's Electric Transit Colin K. Hatcher,2009 Calgary's Electric Transit is the story of electric street railway trolleybus and light rail vehicle transit in Canadas western city of Calgary Alberta Calgary was founded in 1875 when the North West Mounted Police established a new fort Fort Calgary A big boost for Calgary came eight years later when the Canadian Pacific Railway building westward to the Pacific reached the Bow River in 1883 Calgary became an important centre for Canadian Pacific operations and has since become the railways headquarters location By 1909 Calgary boasted a population of 30 000 people In July of that year the Calgary Electric Railway began operations with two cars sixteen employees and three miles of track The system quickly grew and the following year became known as the Calgary Municipal Railway Through its forty years of street railway service Calgary acquired passenger cars from such well known Canadian builders as Ottawa Car Manufacturing Company Preston Car Coach Company and the Canadian Car Foundry In addition the systems roster included used cars from several sources in the United States Totalling 113 cars in all plus a scenic car it has been a daunting task to secure photos for this book Many superb images have been discovered illustrating the operation of streetcars in different sections of the city There are over 150 streetcar photos Finding trolleybus photographs has been a challenge as well but the authors have succeeded in gathering a fine selection representing all classes of trackless trolley coaches purchased new and acquired used from other US systems Youll see streetcars and trolleybuses operating in the city centre in the rural suburbs and in residential neighbourhoods Coverage of todays modern rail transit cars is outstanding Now called light rail vehicles all classes of these LRVs are represented operating in all seasons and over most portions of the system illustrating the many varied and unique Calgary urban environments Rich carefully composed black and white photos are rounded out with a fine showing of subjects in colour There's a variety of photos to interest everyone with an interest in the development of Calgary as a city the construction of The Bay early scenes in Bowness Park and some views of the streetcars serving seemingly unpopulated fields that today are thriving subdivisions Whether you're a railway enthusiast or simply interested in Calgary's history you'll find Colin Hatcher and Tom Schwarzkopf's 200 page account of Calgary's Electric Transit a fascinating informative and enjoyable reading experience Improvement Bulletin, 1908 Country Guide and Northwest Farmer, 1927 Eastern Star World, 1924 Gathered Sheaves from the National Council of Women, Calgary, 1921 A.
