

CALIFORNIA WINE LOVERS' COOKBOOK

By Malcolm Hébert

With a bottle of California wine, you can lift your cooking from the ordinary to the superior. The methods need not be difficult - wine is the secret to this culinary magic. Used as a seasoning, wine serves to marry and point up food flavors. Wine permits you to use less salt and in many cases provides adequate flavor to eliminate salt from your recipe. Wine also acts as a tenderizer, helping to soften cuts of tougher meat as well as flavor them. No alcohol remains in the food, as the heat of cooking evaporates it.

The recipes in this book are winners! They are the best from over 700 submitted to the Wine Institute National Recipe Contest. Selected by a prestigious panel of California wine and food authorities, all recipes have been tested and rewritten in an easy to follow format by the experienced author/chef.

This is the ninth in our famous Wine Cookbook Series and the author's fifth published book. Malcolm Hébert is known for his award winning CHAMPAGNE COOKBOOK and the recently published, ODYSSEY COOKBOOK. Brian St. Pierre, of Wine Institute provides an in-depth chapter on the selection and enjoyment of wine with food.

Artichoke Appetizer with wine, Cold Apricot Soup, Linschouse Chicken and Pumpkin Beef Stew are just a few of the unique and prize winning recipes in this book. They range from "quick and easy" to more difficult and gourmet - all use wine in their preparation and many are low calorie with emphasis on natural ingredients and lighter food.

YOU TOO will be a WINNER in the kitchen with this cookbook and California wine at hand.
