In his long scholarly career Per Bilde 1939 2014 published various essays studies and articles examining early Judaism and the historical Jesus from the angle of the work of Philo and Josephus Many of the articles contain in depth treatment of primary sources and thus are of great value for scholars to come The studies in this volume have yet been compiled by Per Bilde himself They are now edited posthumously with contributions from Steve Mason Groningen and Mogens M ller Copenhagen responding to Bilde s work Studia Philonica Annual XXIV, 2012 David T. Runia, Gregory E.

Sterling, 2012-09-28 The Studia Philonica Annual is a scholarly journal devoted to furthering the study of Hellenistic Judaism and in particular the writings and thought of the Hellenistic Jewish writer Philo of Alexandria circa 15 B C E to circa 50 C E

Beyond the Romans Irene Selsvold, Lewis Webb, 2020-04-09 This latest volume in the TRAC Themes in Theoretical Roman Archaeology series takes up posthuman theoretical perspectives to interpret Roman material culture These perspectives provide novel and compelling ways of grappling with theoretical problems in Roman archaeology producing new knowledge and questions about the complex relationships and interactions between humans and non humans in Roman culture and society Posthumanism constitutes a multitude of theoretical positions characterised by common critiques of anthropocentrism and human exceptionalism In part they react to the dominance of the linguistic turn in humanistic sciences These positions do not exclude the human but instead stress the mutual relationship between matter and discourse Moreover they consider the agency of non humans e g animals material culture landscapes climate and ideas their entanglement with humans and the situated nature of research Posthumanism has had substantial impacts in several fields including critical studies archaeology feminist studies even politics but have not yet emerged in any fulsome way in Classical Studies and Classical Archaeology This is the first volume on these themes in Roman Archaeology aimed at providing valuable perspectives into Roman myth art and material culture displacing and complicating notions of human exceptionalism and individualist subjectivity Contributions consider non human agencies particularly animal material environmental and divine agencies critiques of binary oppositions and gender roles and the Anthropocene Ultimately the papers stress that humans and non humans are entangled and imbricated in larger systems we are all post human Historia, 2008 Evil Lords

Nikos Panou, Hester Schadee, 2018-07-16 By focusing on bad kingship or tyranny Evil Lords offers innovative insights into pre modern conceptions of sovereignty as well as into the relation between ethics and politics individual and society and power and propaganda as elaborated in a number of different contexts periods and genres from Antiquity to the Renaissance

Receptions of Antiquity Jan Nelis, 2011 This volume presents a series of papers which cover the general theme of the reception of antiquity a topic which has in recent years become a discipline in itself or what some might call a cross discipline Indeed the Nachleben of the culture of classical antiquity and of antiquity as a whole manifests in a number of diverse domains opening up the field of reception studies to scholars from disciplines other than Classics This collection of papers illustrates this diversity uniting as it does original research by scholars from a variety of disciplines classicists historians theatre historians architectural historians psychologists archaeologists artists and more all of whom have treated some aspect of the so called classical tradition by means of their own individual approaches leading to a volume rich and dense in themes and methodologies

Receptions of antiquity has been written by friends of Freddy Decreus in honour of his career and in celebration of his thought
