Joseph Tilley (of Derby, Eng.)

Calke Abbey:

The History of the County of Derby Stephen Glover, 1829 Welcome to Calke Abbey National Trust (Great Britain), 1998 Tourist or visitor's guide to Calke Abbey Derbyshire England Conservation Today David Pearce, 2014-02-04 First published in 1989 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Complete Baronetage: English, Irish and Scottish, 1625-1649 George Edward Cokayne, 1902 Faded and Threadbare Historic Textiles and their Role in Houses Open to the Public Margaret Ponsonby, 2016-04-15 Many historic houses that open to the public in England and Wales particularly those owned by the National Trust preserve their contents rather than restore them to a particular period The former owners of these houses often retained objects from various periods and this layering of history produces interiors that look aged and patinated Although the reason for this preservation and lack of fashionable renewable can be attributed to declining economic fortunes in the twentieth century there are many examples of families practising this method of homemaking over a much longer period Taking National Trust properties as its central focus this book examines three interlocking themes to examine the role of historic textiles Firstly it looks at houses with preserved contents together with the reasons for individual families choosing this lifestyle secondly the role of the National Trust as both guardian and interpreter of these houses and their collections and finally and most importantly the influence of textiles to contribute to the appearance of interiors and their physical attributes that carry historical resonances of the past The importance of preserved textiles in establishing the visual character of historic houses is a neglected area and therefore the prominence given to textiles in this project constitutes an original contribution to the study of these houses Drawing upon a range of primary sources including literature produced by the National Trust for their sites and documentary sources for the families and their houses such as diaries letters and household accounts the study takes a broad approach that will be of interest to all those with an interest in material culture heritage collecting studies and cultural history Derbyshire Walks with Children William D. Parke, 1997 Derbyshire Walks With Children offers a range of routes chosen to appeal to all the family All routes are less than six miles long and come with detailed instructions for parents and interactive commentary for children The old halls, manors, and families of Derbyshire, by J.T. Joseph Tilley (of Derby, Eng.), 1902 The Old Halls, Manors and Families of Derbyshire: The Scarsdale Hundred Joseph Tilley (of Derby, Eng.), 1899 Wall Memorials and Heritage Sybille Frank, 2016-06-17 Analysing the transformation of Berlin's former Allied border control point Checkpoint Charlie into a global heritage industry this volume provides an introduction to and a theoretically informed structuring of the interdisciplinary international heritage debate This crucial case study demonstrates that an unregulated global heritage industry has developed in Berlin which capitalizes on the internationally very attractive but locally still very painful heritage of the Berlin Wall Frank explores the conflicts that occur when private commercial interests in interpreting and selling history to an international audience clash with traditional institutionalized public forms of local and national heritage making and commemorative practices and with the victims perspectives Wall Memorials and Heritage illustrates existing approaches to heritage research and develops them in dialogue with Berlin s traditions of conveying history and the specific configuration of the heritage industry at Checkpoint Charlie Productively integrating theory with empirical evidence this innovative book enriches the international literature on heritage and its economic and political contexts Debrett's Peerage, Baronetage, Knightage, and Companionage ,1902 Debrett's Illustrated Peerage and Baronetage, Titles of Courtesy and the Knightage ,1909 Includes an unpagged appendix royal warrant holders and 19 a war honours supplement
