London,2020-08-27 Buck did not read the newspapers or he would have known that trouble was brewing not alone for himself but for every tide water dog strong of muscle and with warm long hair from Puget Sound to San Diego Because men groping in the Arctic darkness had found a yellow metal and because steamship and transportation companies were booming the find thousands of men were rushing into the Northland These men wanted dogs and the dogs they wanted were heavy dogs with strong muscles by which to toil and furry coats to protect them from the frost Buck lived at a big house in the sun kissed Santa Clara Valley Judge Miller s place it was called It stood back from the road half hidden among the trees through which glimpses could be caught of the wide cool veranda that ran around its four sides The house was approached by gravelled driveways which wound about through wide spreading lawns and under the interlacing boughs of tall poplars At the rear things were on even a more spacious scale than at the front There were great stables where a dozen grooms and boys held forth rows of vine clad servants cottages an endless and orderly array of outhouses long grape arbors green pastures orchards and berry patches Then there was the pumping plant for the artesian well and the big cement tank where Judge Miller s boys took their morning plunge and kept cool in the hot afternoon The Call of the Wild Jack London,1928
