The Laity and Christian Education Dolores R. Leckey, 2006 This book tells the story of how the role of the laity as essential in the life of the Church moved to center stage during the Council and how lay people were among those who made it happen

When the Magisterium Intervenes Richard R. Gaillardetz, 2012-05-01 Catholicism has always recognized the need for a normative doctrinal teaching authority Yet the character scope and exercise of that authority what has come to be called the magisterium has changed significantly over two millennia This book gathers contributions from leading Catholic scholars in considering new factors that must be taken into account as we consider the church's official teaching authority in today's postmodern context. Noted experts in their fields cover many intriguing topics here including the investigation of theologians that has occurred in recent years, canonical perspectives on such investigations, the role that women religious have played in these issues, the place of the media when problems arise, and possible future ways forward. The book concludes with The Elizabeth Johnson Dossier, a selection of documents essential to understanding the case of Elizabeth Johnson, CSJ, whose work was recently the subject of severe criticism by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Contributors include Bradford Hinze, James Coriden, Colleen Mallon, Ormond Rush, Gerard Mannion, Anthony Godzieba, Vincent Miller, Richard Gaillardetz, and Elizabeth Johnson. The Gift of

Administration Donald Senior, 2016. In his First Letter to the Corinthians, Paul cites administrators as one of God's gifts to the Christian community (1 Cor 12:28). But many who serve in administrative service today have difficulty seeing how their everyday work is an expression of discipleship. This book, written by an experienced administrator and noted biblical scholar, shows how the various functions of institutional administration are deeply rooted in the Scriptures and are a genuine expression of our call to discipleship. Leadership, mission statements, and planning, finances, and fund raising, personnel issues, communications, and public relations—all of these seemingly secular activities serve to build up the Body of Christ and deserve to be recognized as authentic Christian ministry. To see administrative service as a biblically rooted gift can help those involved in this way of life to find deeper and more satisfying spiritual meaning in what they do. Understanding New Perspectives of Spirituality Edie Lanphar, Agata Wilczek, 2019-01-04. This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015. This book deals with the rapidly developing field of spirituality. Although having a singularity of focus, the chapters have been written by a cross-cultural and international set of researchers who discuss critical issues from an interdisciplinary perspective. Thus, while a broad range of critical aspects emerge, the chapters are threaded together by the concept of spirituality as a lone walk. While alone, the spiritual journey is also deeply connected to others. As a deeply human experience, the chapters in this book therefore reflect the prismatic viewpoints that form the understandings and experiences of the spiritual walk. This book challenges the reader to start to understand the apparent ambiguity; this appears to bring to researchers and practitioners rather than a roadblock to understanding the multiple frames and facets, this brings it is instead a rich field for the exploration of the human condition. Together Through Reflection Bridget Deegan-Krause, 2025-11-15. A helpful guide for busy leaders to prayerfully reflect on their work or engage in group reflection with their team. Mission and ministry work can often be very demanding, so making time to hit the pause button for reflection before meetings and other important work has become a valued practice in many Catholic faith-based organizations. These pauses for spiritual reflection can enliven institutions, support the wide variety of individuals who work in Catholic organizations, and strengthen their important contributions to society. Designed for professionals in any organizational setting.

Together Through Reflection serves as a helpful resource for mission formation and crafting fruitful reflection experiences for both personal and group use Deegan Krause offers theologically grounded content prompts for thought and prayer practical guidance and other content to inspire a creative process Designed as a resource for faith based mission driven leaders to use with their teams this accessible guide offers practical direction for producing an effective and prayerful reflection experience Professional ministers and chaplains as well as lay leaders serving in Catholic organizations or institutional settings and all engaged with shepherding Catholic identity into the future will find Together for Reflection an essential resource for building community and living a reflective life
