Call Me John:

Call Me John Michael Schoenholtz,2021-03-26 New Jersey 1928 A 14 year old boy disappears from his home without a trace Ninety years later a series of chance DNA matches reveals what became of him John had to grow up quickly changing his identity earning a living and navigating love friendship and death during some of the toughest times in American history With nothing more than an 8th grade education his journey takes us through Prohibition the Great Depression the Dust Bowl the gold mines of Colorado and the Second World War to eventually become a success in his own right Based on a true story

Call me John: A life of Pope John XXIII Richard Cushing,2026-03-19 From the humble origins of a peasant boy in northern Italy to the marble halls of the Vatican one man s extraordinary journey would forever change the face of Christianity and touch millions of hearts across the globe Cardinal Richard Cushing presents an intimate portrait of Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli the beloved Pope who asked the world to simply call me John and whose revolutionary spirit shattered centuries of papal tradition with warmth humanity and breathtaking courage This deeply moving biography captures the essence of a pontiff who dared to open the windows of the Catholic Church and let fresh air sweep through its ancient corridors Through Cushing s masterful storytelling we witness Pope John XXIII s remarkable transformation from a diplomatic priest navigating the treacherous waters of World War II to the charismatic leader who convened the groundbreaking Second Vatican Council The author reveals the private struggles profound faith and infectious joy of a man who believed that the Church should be a source of comfort rather than condemnation embracing all humanity with open arms Each page pulses with the warmth and wisdom that made John XXIII one of history s most cherished religious figures painting vivid scenes of his encounters with world leaders his revolutionary encyclicals promoting peace and social justice and his final courageous battle against illness while continuing to serve his flock Written with the insight of someone who knew the papal court intimately this compelling biography offers readers an unparalleled window into the mind and heart of a saint whose brief but transformative papacy left an indelible mark on the modern world Cushing s authoritative yet deeply personal narrative illuminates why this humble rotund pope became a beacon of hope during the turbulent 1960s inspiring not only Catholics but people of all faiths to embrace compassion dialogue and renewal
