A Sense Of The Country:

The Country Home, 1912 New Waves In Political Philosophy Boudewijn de Bruin, C. Zurn, 2008-12-19 Comprising essays by eleven up and coming scholars from across the globe this collection of essays provides an unparalleled snapshot of new work in political philosophy using such diverse methodologies as critical theory and social choice theory historical analysis and conceptual analysis Home and Country, 1928 Rethinking Stateless Nations and National Identity in Wales and the Basque Country Sophie Williams, 2018-08-10 This book looks at the fundamental components of national identity as understood by ordinary nation members and the way in which it is mobilised by political elites Drawing on an original case comparison between Wales and the Basque Country the author suggests there are many commonalities between these two nations particularly around the fundamentals of their national identities However differences occur in terms of degree of intensity of feeling and around the politicisation of identity with more entrenched and hostile political positioning in the Basque Country than Wales Through a multi level comparison the book generates insights into national identity as a theoretical concept and in a stateless nation context It argues for national identity's intangible yet polemical nature looking at the primordialist way it is understood its permanence and importance coupled with its lack of everyday salience and consequent obligations Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country, 1869 The Outlook, 1919 Pamphlets and Leaflets of the Liberal Publication Dept Liberal Publication Department (Great Britain), 1927 The Territories Law Reports ... Northwest Territories. Supreme Court, 1910 The Liberal Magazine, 1911 High Country Courtney Ryley Cooper, 1926 The Dao of Civilization Freya Mathews, 2023-02-14 The book sets out a prospectus for a new form of civilization patterned at every level to serve and sustain the biosphere Starting with the deep philosophical flaw at the core of modernity namely that the cosmos is devoid of ends of its own it posits as an alternative axis for civilization that the cosmos indeed actively seeks its own existence and that its self realization is moreover internally structured via an impulse amongst finite things towards co generativity Termed Dao in ancient China and often coded as Law in Indigenous and First Nations cultures this innate template is here taken as a first principle for economic production in contemporary societies basic modes of economic production must transition from antagonistic to synergistic to a specifically biological form of synergy which involves not merely the imitation of natural systems but active collaboration with them The fact that this first principle is so philosophically alien to the Western mind set while yet finding strong resonances with Chinese tradition might encourage China as an emerging great power to lead the world in crafting a contemporary form of civilization that is true to Dao
