A Poets View:

How to Study a Poet John Peck, 1988-11-11 This practical reference for university and senior high school students shows how to read understand and analyze poetry Included are sections on narrative poetry and writing essays How Poets See the World Willard Spiegelman, 2005-06-23 Although readers of prose fiction sometimes find descriptive passages superfluous or boring description itself is often the most important aspect of a poem This book examines how a variety of contemporary poets use description in their work Description has been the great burden of poetry How do poets see the world How do they look at it What do they look for Is description an end in itself or a means of expressing desire Ezra Pound demanded that a poem should represent the external world as objectively and directly as possible and William Butler Yeats in his introduction to The Oxford Book of Modern Verse 1936 said that he and his generation were rebelling against inter alia irrelevant descriptions of nature in the work of their predecessors The poets in this book however who are distinct in many ways from one another all observe the external world of nature or the reflected world of art and make relevant poems out of their observations This study deals with the crisp elegant work of Charles Tomlinson the swirling baroque poetry of Amy Clampitt the metaphysical meditations of Charles Wright from a position in his backyard the weather reports and landscapes of John Ashbery and the new way of looking that Jorie Graham proposes to explore in her increasingly fragmented poems All of these poets plus others Gary Snyder Theodore Weiss Irving Feldman Richard Howard who are dealt with more briefly attend to what Wallace Stevens in a memorable phrase calls the way things look each day The ordinariness of daily reality is the beginning of the poets own idiosyncratic indeed unique visions and styles Multimodality Gunther R. Kress, 2010 Gunther Kress a pioneer in the field of multimodality and the co author of the bestselling Reading Images produces a comprehensive theoretical framework for the study of the topic providing sample analyses and suggestions for further reading Keats View of Poetry Takeshi Saito, Edmund Blunden, 1929 Conversations with Denise Levertov Denise Levertov, 1998 Denise Levertov American poet and activist died in December 1997 at the age of 74 This book contains some twenty previously uncollected interviews conducted between the early 1960s and the middle of the 1990s They are focused primarily on her work as a poet but also on her social and political concerns The interviews in which Levertov discusses her craft constitute an important document on American poetry in the second half of the twentieth century She talks of her legendary friendship with her mentor William Carlos Williams and her association with the Black Mountain Poets As she discusses her craft in great detail she gives special attention to diction line lengths versification and choice of subject matter Students of American culture and readers of American poetry will be delighted by this collection of the personal views of one of the century's best poets The American Poet Laureate Amy Paeth, 2023-05-16 The American Poet Laureate shows how the state has been the silent center of poetic production in the United States since World War II It is the first history of the national poetry office the U S poet laureate highlighting the careers of Elizabeth Bishop Robert Frost Gwendolyn Brooks

Robert Pinsky Tracy K Smith Juan Felipe Herrera and Joy Harjo at the nation's Capitol It is also a history of how these state poets participated in national arts programming during the Cold War Drawing on previously unexplored archival materials at the Library of Congress and materials at the John F Kennedy Presidential Library Amy Paeth describes the interactions of federal bodies including the Central Intelligence Agency the State Department and the National Endowment for the Arts with literary organizations and with private patrons including Prozac heiress Ruth Lilly The consolidation of public and private interests is crucial to the development of state verse culture recognizable at the first National Poetry Festival in 1962 which followed Robert Frost's Mission to Moscow and which became dominant in the late 1990s and early 2000s The American Poet Laureate contributes to a growing body of institutional and sociological approaches to U S literary production in the postwar era and demonstrates how poetry has played a uniquely important and largely underacknowledged role in the cultural front of the Cold War
