A Ready Made Life Early Masters Of Korean Fiction:

A Ready-Made Life Chong-un Kim, 1998-07-01 A Ready Made Life is the first volume of early modern Korean fiction to appear in English in the U S Written between 1921 and 1943 the sixteen stories are an excellent introduction to the riches of modern Korean fiction They reveal a variety of settings voices styles and thematic concerns and the best of them masterpieces written mainly in the mid 1930s display an impressive artistic maturity Included among these authors are Hwang Sun won modern Korea s greatest short story writer Kim Tong in regarded by many as the author who best captures the essence of the Korean identity Ch ae Man shik a master of irony Yi Sang a prominent modernist Kim Yu jong whose stories are marked by a unique blend of earthy humor and compassion Yi Kwang su and Kim Tong ni modernizers of the language of twentieth century Korean fiction and Yi Ki y ng Yi T ae jun and Pak T ae won three writers who migrated to North Korea shortly after Liberation in 1945 and whose works were subsequently banned in South Korea until democratization in the late 1980s One way of reading the stories all of which were written during the Japanese occupation is that beneath their often oppressive and gloomy surface lies an anticolonial subtext They can also be read as a collective record of a people whose life choices were severely restricted not just by colonization but by education either too little or too much as the title story shows and by a highly structured society that had little tolerance for those who overstepped its boundaries Life was unremittingly onerous for many Koreans during this period whatever their social background In the stories educated city folk fare little better than farmers and laborers A Ready Made Life will provide scholars and students with crucial access to the literature of Korea s colonial period A generous opening essay discusses the collection in the context of modern Korean literary history and short introductions precede each story Here is a richly diverse testament to a modern literature that is poised to assume a long overdue place in world literature

Figuring Korean Futures Dafna Zur,2017-10-03 This book is the story of the emergence and development of writing for children in modern Korea Starting in the 1920s a narrator adult voice began to speak directly to a child reader This child audience was perceived as unique because of a new concept the child heart the perception that the child s body and mind were transparent and knowable and that they rested on the threshold of culture This privileged location enabled writers and illustrators educators and psychologists intellectual elite and laypersons to envision the child as a powerful antidote to the present and as an uplifting metaphor of colonial Korea s future Reading children s periodicals against the political educational and psychological discourses of their time Dafna Zur argues that the figure of the child was particularly favorable to the project of modernity and nation building as well as to the colonial and postcolonial projects of socialization and nationalization She demonstrates the ways in which Korean children s literature builds on a trajectory that begins with the child as an organic part of nature and ends in the post colonial era with the child as the primary agent of control of nature Figuring Korean Futures reveals the complex ways in which the figure of the child became a driving force of nostalgia that stood in for future aspirations for the individual family class and nation
