Twenty-First Century American Playwrights Christopher Bigsby, 2017-12-07 The early years of the twenty first century saw several losses for the American theatre but also marked the emergence of a new generation of exciting playwrights In this book Christopher Bigsby explores the work of nine of these developing talents and the importance of issues including race gender and politics for their writing Increasingly these new figures are gaining their reputations not on Broadway but in small theatres and small towns or even abroad bringing fresh and diverse perspectives to contemporary American drama With a focus on female writers and on issues of personal and public identity in contemporary society this volume investigates the styles and techniques these playwrights favour the themes they raise and their role in a changing America and a changing world

American Playwrights, 1880-1945 William W. Demastes, 1995 During the years 1880 to 1945 American theatre grew up moving from entertainment driven motives and melodramatic formulas to serious confrontations with issues of its time and to an experimentation with forms that would allow those confrontations to be frank and earnest Many of the playwrights of this time wrote works of lasting significance while others have impacted the work of contemporary dramatists This reference is a guide to American theatre during this formative period The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 40 American playwrights active between 1880 and 1945 Included are the most frequently canonized figures as well as previously neglected women and minority playwrights whose work is a vital part of American theatre history Each entry includes a biographical overview a summary of the critical reception of major productions and significant revivals a critical assessment of the playwright's career and a listing of archival primary and secondary bibliographic material

Contemporary American Playwrights C. W. E. Bigsby, 1999 Christopher Bigsby explores the works and influences of ten contemporary American playwrights John Guare House of Blue Leaves Tina Howe Museum and Approaching Zanzibar Pulitzer Prize and Tony award winner Tony Kushner Angels in America Emily Mann Annulla An Autobiography and Having Our Say Richard Nelson An American Comedy Marsha Norman The Secret Garden David Rabe In the Boom Boom Room Pulitzer Prize winner Paula Vogel Desdemona A Play about a Handkerchief Wendy Wasserstein The Sisters Rosenzweig and Pulitzer Prize winner Lanford Wilson Talley's Folly Bigsby examines in some detail the developing careers of some of America's most fascinating and original dramatic talent In addition to well known works Bigsby discusses some of the latest plays to reach the stage This lively and accessible book by one of the leading writers on American theatre will be of interest to students scholars and general theatre goers alike

American Playwrights of Today Burns Mantle, 1929

Asian American Playwrights Miles Liu, 2002-05-30 In the late nineteenth century Asian American drama made its debut with the spotlight firmly on the lives and struggles of Asians in North America rather than on the cultures and traditions of the Asian homeland Today Asian American playwrights continue to challenge the limitations of established theatrical conventions and direct popular attention toward issues and experiences that might otherwise be ignored or marginalized While Asian American literature came into full bloom in the last 25 years Asian American drama has yet to receive the kind of critical attention it warrants This reference book serves as a versatile vehicle for exploring the field of Asian American drama from its recorded conception to its present stage Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 52 Asian American dramatists of origins from India Pakistan Vietnam the Philippines Japan Korea and China Each entry includes relevant biographical information that contextualizes the works of a playwright an interpretive description of selected plays that spotlights recurring themes and plots a summary of the playwright's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works The entries are written by expert contributors and reflect the ethnic diversity of the Asian American community The volume closes with a selected general bibliography which includes anthologies scholarly studies and periodicals

Four Contemporary American Playwrights Christopher Bigsby, 2025-10-16 The fourth in a series of books exploring the careers of 28 contemporary American playwrights this book covers the work of four male writers Lucas Hnath Branden Jacobs Jenkins Stephen Karam and Tarell Alvin McCraney The dramatic strategies of these award winning playwrights range widely in styles and approach Christopher Bigsby interweaves critical analysis of their work with biographical information contemporary responses and the writers own comments drawn from interviews At a time when the question of identity is central in America at both a personal and national level how far do these playwrights see this as central or incidental to their work Bigsby argues that Branden Jacobs Jenkins work often asks to what extent race is a construct in work including Neighbors An Octoroon and Appropriate while stepping away from race in Everybody Tarell Alvin McCraney conscious that being labelled as gay or black can influence the reception of his work nonetheless embraces both in The Brothers Size Choir Boy Wig Out and his Oscar winning film Moonlight If Stephen Karam from a Lebanese American family engages with gay characters in Speech and Debate and The Humans this book posits that he is also interested in suffering something of which he has personal experience Finally Lucas Hnath approaches identity in another way appropriating the lives of real characters historical and contemporary inhabiting and deconstructing them
