Trauma in 20th Century Multicultural American Poetry Jamie D. Barker, 2020-02-06 In Trauma in 20th Century Multicultural American Poetry Jamie D Barker argues that by using literary trauma theory in conjunction with a reader response approach readers can gain a better understanding of how poetry can work towards building community and encouraging empowerment over oppression by establishing collectives of people who may share similar stories and experiences connected to trauma Rather than demonstrating how the poetry may fail or trying to establish what traumatic events the speaker or poet in some studies may have encountered and the significance thereof this study focuses on how the reader may find community with the ideas represented within the poem The poetry of various ethnicities are examined including African American poets Amiri Baraka and Lucille Clifton Native American poets Robin Coffee Linda Hogan and Peter Blue Cloud as well as Japanese American poets Mitsuye Yamada Keiho Soga and Lawson Fusao Inada Although many of these poets have had their poems examined in the past none have been explored through this type of approach Furthermore very few studies have expanded upon the ideas of literary trauma theory by using reader response and no writings have examined the idea of ambivalence in poetry as this study does

Robert Frost Charles River Editors, 2019-09-17 Includes pictures Includes a bibliography for further reading I d like to get away from earth awhile And then come back to it and begin over May no fate willfully misunderstand me And half grant what I wish and snatch me away Not to return Earth s the right place for love I don t know where it s likely to go better I d like to go by climbing a birch tree And climb black branches up a snow white trunk Toward heaven till the tree could bear no more But dipped its top and set me down again That would be good both going and coming back One could do worse than be a swinger of birches Robert Frost Birches Of all the authors and poets American schoolchildren may be exposed to over the course of their education Robert Frost is often one of the first and on rare occasions that he is not it is still a near certainty that some of his most famous poems will be discussed at some point Many will have memorized Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening before finishing grade school or will instantly recall the end of The Road Not Taken Frost may not be as remembered or influential as other American literary giants or even poets such as Emily Dickinson and Walt Whitman but his career was historic in terms of its length and breadth of accomplishments Over the course of several decades Frost became the first to win four Pulitzer Prizes for Poetry and he also earned such recognitions as a Congressional Medal of Honor before being made the poet laureate of Vermont shortly before the end of his life The many works he put out and the various styles of prose all greatly influenced his contemporaries and future generations of writers even as he ably described a rural America of a seemingly bygone era and managed to instill universal ideas and teachings therein Poet Amy Lowell may have described his abilities best early on in Frost s career writing of him He tells you what he has seen exactly as he has seen it And in the word exactly lies the half of his talent The other half is a great and beautiful simplicity of phrase the inheritance of a race brought up on the English Bible Mr Frost s work is not in the least objective He is not writing of people whom he has met in summer vacations who strike him as interesting and whose life he thinks worthy of perpetuation Mr Frost writes as a man under the spell of a fixed idea He is as racial as his own puppets One of the great interests of the book is the uncompromising New Englander it reveals Art is rooted in the soil and only the very greatest men can be both cosmopolitan and great Mr Frost is as New England as Burns is Scotch Synge Irish or Mistral Proven al Robert Frost The Life and Legacy of the Famous 20th Century American Poet looks at his remarkable life and work Along with pictures depicting important people places and events you will learn about Robert Frost like never before America at the Millennium Howard Ely,2000 The Penguin Anthology of Twentieth-century American Poetry Rita Dove,2011 An anthology of twentieth century American poetry featuring Wallace Stevens T S Eliot Elizabeth Bishop Robert Hayden Gwendolyn Brooks Derek Walcott Adrienne Rich John Ashbery Anne Sexton and many others Poet Lore Charlotte Endymion Porter,Helen Archibald Clarke,Ruth Hill,John Heard (Jr.),Eisig Silberschlag,Edmund Randolph Brown,John Williams Andrews,Philip K.
