Americas Defense:

American Defense Policy Paul J. Bolt, Damon V. Coletta, Collins G. Shackelford, 2005 American Defense Policy has been a mainstay for instructors of courses in political science international relations military affairs and American national security for over 25 years The updated and thoroughly revised eighth edition considers questions of continuity and change in America s defense policy in the face of a global climate beset by geopolitical tensions rapid technological change and terrorist violence On September 11 2001 the seemingly impervious United States was handed a very sharp reality check In this new atmosphere of fear and vulnerability policy makers were forced to make national security their highest priority implementing laws and military spending initiatives to combat the threat of international terrorism In this volume experts examine the many factors that shape today s security landscape America s values the preparation of future defense leaders the efforts to apply what we have learned from Afghanistan and Iraq

Defense Viewpoint, 1991 US Defense Politics Harvey M. Sapolsky, Eugene Gholz, Caitlin Talmadge, 2008-08-06 This new textbook seeks to explain how US defense and national security policy is formulated and conducted The focus is on the role of the President Congress political partisans defense industries lobbies science the media and interest groups including the military itself in shaping policies It examines the following key themes US grand strategy who joins America s military how and why weapons are bought the management of defense public attitudes toward the military and casualties the roles of the President and the Congress in controlling the military the effects of 9 11 on security policy homeland security government reorganizations and intra and inter service relations The book shows how political and organizational interests determine US defense policy and warns against the introduction of centralising reforms In emphasizing the process of defense policy making rather than just the outcomes of that process this book signals a departure from the style of many existing textbooks

Ebbing Opportunity: Australia and the US National Technology and Industrial Base Brendan Thomas-Noone, 2019-11-25 The United States National Technology and Industrial Base NTIB is a congressionally mandated policy framework that is intended to foster a defence free trade area among the defence related research and development sectors of the United States Canada Australia and the United Kingdom To date however the NTIB has only managed to facilitate limited bilateral cooperation between some members falling well short of its goal The US defence export control regime is one of the biggest barriers to NTIB integration Specifically bureaucratic fragmentation its failure to treat trusted allies differently from other partners and its leaders reluctance to attempt politically costly reform are significant barriers to progress Canberra s ability to maintain its own competitive military advantage and to serve as an effective ally of the United States in the Indo Pacific is threatened by real and growing opportunity costs in an age of rapid strategic and technological change that Australia and Australian industry face as a result of slow NTIB implementation Australian leaders should elevate NTIB progress to the political level and accelerate efforts to make a strategic case in Washington as to why extensive and ambitious implementation of NTIB s
