A Pima Remembers:

A Pima Remembers George Webb, 2015-11-06 The lifestyle of a people preserved in the memory of a Pima whose life ran from the late 1800s to the Space Age The universality of man's eternal hope of betterment is reflected in the wisdom of the Pimas So now I hope You will strive To make this day The best in your life George Webb a book which seems to have grown right out of the Arizona earth anecdotal almost artless in its directness but having the impact of reality a flavorsome re-creation of things past in the life of a friendly generous people The New York Times George Webb's gentle recollections of his childhood and Pima Indian lifeways will doubtless endure forever This deeply moving autobiography is the perfect introduction for younger Pimas to their culture and history Arizona Highways This extraordinarily pleasant and amiable narrative wakes vivid an ancient and happy way of life Oliver LaFarge An Oasis Remembered Robert E. Ramsey, 2004 Rural Arizona in the 1920s offered a harsh environment to those who chose to call it home Life on an impoverished Indian Reservation further deepened the challenge but it also was the turning point in my family's life Rich and lasting friendships were developed among the Indian people the memories of which are lasting today This is a historical and pictorial review of the Government Agency located on the Pima Indian Reservation at Sacaton Arizona and a review of a number of prominent people who administered the Tribal affairs during the period between 1859-1968 after which the Tribe then became independent and self-governing The book contains 105 pictures dating back into the late 1800s and into the late 1940s Pima cotton the world's finest was developed at Sacaton and the history of this development is described It is a wonderful and enlightening story of another time A Pima Past Anna Moore Shaw, 1974-03 In simple unaffected prose Mrs Shaw constructs a moving saga of Native Americans caught between their tribal past and a Europeanized present Some of the most interesting passages deal with the wrenching realities of Indian life on the reservation in the years around the turn of the century when the Indian male as a warrior found himself bereft of his very reason for being and forced to endeavor to become a farmer Journal of Arizona History A most interesting book Her account of how the Pima Indians lived their family structure how they reared their children courtship and marriage how they treated their elders their religious practices before the coming of a Christian missionary in 1870 and their accommodation with death are related in language that can be easily understood by the layman and yet provide information which can be used by the sociologist and anthropologist Journal of the West The current trend in books written by American Indians is to idealize the Indian past while condemning white culture This volume is a notable exception because its author is old enough to remember the past and because she has been successful in adapting those elements of white culture which she found useful without sacrificing this essential heritage The style is simple and straightforward that of a good storyteller which reaches all adult levels Choice Simple and charming reminiscences of the old Pima ways at the turn of the century when they still prevailed and of the changes which recent decades have brought about in the lives of the desert people Books of the Southwest Throughout her account a special kind of humor sensitivity and pride is revealed when discussing her peoples and her own personal experiences The Masterkey

My Heart Is Bound Up with Them David Martínez,2023-02-21 Centering historically neglected Indigenous voices as its primary source material author David Martínez shows how Carlos Montezuma's correspondence and interactions with his family and their community influenced his advocacy and how his important work in Arizona specifically motivated his work on a national level From Huhugam to Hohokam J. Brett Hill,2018-12-19 In From Huhugam to Hohokam Heritage and Archaeology in the American Southwest J. Brett Hill examines the history of Oodham heritage as it was recorded at the beginning of European conquest A parallel history of scientific exploration is then traced forward to produce intricate models of the coming and going of ancient peoples Throughout this history Native accounts were routinely dismissed as an inferior kind of knowledge More recently though a revolutionary change has taken hold in archaeology as Native insights and premises are integrated into scientific thought Integration was once suspected of undermining basic principles of knowledge but J. Brett Hill contends that it provides a deeper and more accurate sense of the connection between living and ancient people Hill combines three decades of experience in archaeology with a liberal arts perspective to produce something for readers at all levels in the fields of anthropology Native American studies history museum studies and other heritage disciplines

Legal Codes and Talking Trees Katrina Jagodinsky,2016-01-01 CHAPTER 7 Louisa Enick Hemmed In on All Sides Washington 1855 1935 CHAPTER 8 The Acts of Forgetfulness Indigenous Women's Legal History in Archives and Tribal Offices Throughout the North American West Notes Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P R S T U V W Y Z Fat Robert Pool,2001-02-15 When the leptin gene was discovered in 1994 news articles predicted that there might soon be an easy pharmaceutical solution to the growing public health crisis of obesity Yet this scientific breakthrough merely proved once again how difficult the fight against fat really is Despite the many appetite suppressants diet pills and weight loss programs available today approximately 30 percent of Americans are obese And that number is expanding rapidly Fat is the engaging story of the scientific quest to understand and control body weight Covering the entire twentieth century Robert Pool chronicles the evolving blame game for fat from being a result of undisciplined behavior to subconscious conflicts physiological disease and environmental excess Readers in today's weight conscious society will be surprised to learn that being overweight was actually encouraged by doctors and popular health magazines up until the 1930s when the health risks associated with being overweight were publicly recognized Thus began decades of research and experiments that subsequently explained appetite metabolism and the development of fat cells Pool effectively reanimates the colorful characters curious experiments brilliant insights and wrong turns that led to contemporary scientific understanding of America's epidemic While he acknowledges the advances in the pharmacological fight against flab he underscores that the real problem of obesity is not losing the weight but keeping it off Drugs offer a quick fix but they aren't the ultimate answer American society must remedy the unhealthy daily environments of its cities and towns and those who have struggled with their weight and have experienced the yo yo cycle of dieting must understand the underlying science of body weight that makes their struggle more than a question of willpower

The Kiva ,1966 The People ,1993 Introduction to the Native peoples of the American Southwest Catalogue of the Library of the Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology. Library,1963 Stars Above, Earth Below Carnegie Museum of Natural History,1998 A collection of essays that discuss how the stories songs myths and hunting methods of the Native Americans help express their beliefs about the natural world The Western Historical Quarterly ,1999 The Chinese Experience in Arizona and Northern Mexico ,1980 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1992 Arizona Thomas E. Sheridan,1995 In this book Sheridan sets forth new ideas about what a history should be Arizona A History explores the ways in which Native Americans Hispanics and Anglos have inhabited and exploited Arizona from the pursuit of the Naco mammoth 11 000 years ago to the financial adventurism of Charles Keating and others today Circle Without End Frances G. Lombardi,Gerald Scott Lombardi,1982 The Journal of Arizona History ,2014 Folk Mammalogy of the Northern Pimans Amadeo M. Rea,1998-10 Knowledge held about animals by Pima speaking Native Americans of Arizona and northwest Mexico is intimately entwined with their way of life a way that is fading from memory as beavers and wolves vanish also from the Southwest Ethnobiologist Amadeo Rea has conducted extensive fieldwork among the Northern Pimans and here shares what these people know about mammals and how mammals affect their lives Rea describes the relationship of the River Pima Tohono O odham Papago Pima Bajo and Mountain Pima to the furred creatures of their environment how they are named and classified hunted prepared for consumption and incorporated into myth He also identifies associations between mammals and Piman notions of illness by establishing correlations between the geographical distribution of mammals and ideas regarding which animals do or do not cause staying sickness This information reveals how historical and ecological factors can directly influence the belief systems of a people At the heart of the book are detailed species accounts that relate Piman knowledge of the bats rabbits rodents carnivores and hoofed mammals in their world encompassing creatures ranging from deer mouse to mule deer cottontail to cougar Rea has been careful to emphasize folk knowledge in these accounts by letting the Pimans tell their own stories about mammals as related in transcribed conversations This wide reaching study encompasses an area from the Rio Yaqui to the Gila River and the Gulf of California to the Sierra Madre Occidental and incorporates knowledge that goes back three centuries Folk Mammalogy of the Northern Pimans preserves that knowledge for scholars and Pimans alike and invites all interested readers to see natural history through another people s eyes The Indians and Eskimos of North America Jack W.
