A Rainbow Through The Storms:

Rainbows Through The Storm Holly Campbell,2023-07-08 Rainbows through the Storm shares a mother s story of her struggle with grief and faith Her family endured one of life s worst nightmares the deaths of two children Between God's Promise and the Storm Christopher Williams,2025-11-24 When a tornado rips through Meadowbrook it exposes more than broken roofs it lays bare the grief Sam Collins has tried to outrun since his wife s death Reluctantly back in his childhood parsonage with his eight year old daughter Ella Sam wants only to fix what s in front of him and keep his heart walled off from God But the town he left behind has other plans In the quiet courage of neighbors the steady kindness of a young pastor and the innocent prayers of a child Sam encounters a grace he thought he d lost Then he discovers his late father s final sermon a message about the God who remains in the boat when storms rise and everything begins to change From splintered pews and tarped windows to a grand reopening drenched in light Meadowbrook rebuilds together and so does Sam Between God s promise and every storm stands a choice to live guarded by anger or to risk hope Poignant and uplifting Between God s Promise and the Storm is a story of second chances a father s love and the community that helps him believe again Through the Storm Glenda Emigh,2001-10 Life is full of storms They may be forces of nature or the quieter emotional storms that batter our inner beings Whatever the storm though we have a Rock of refuge the God Who sees us through That s the message of Through the Storm a collection of short prose poetry and Scriptures that considers the many types of storms in our lives and how they affect our faith From actual weather related events to stormy relationships Through the Storm deals honestly with the various trials we face but always brings the reader back to the One Who can calm the storm A cyclopaedia of nature teachings, with an intr. by H.
