transformed and liberated and how that in turn has a tremendous impact on her children This is my belief and my personal experience and it s why Self Made resonates so strongly with me Maria Elena Lagomasino CEO of WE Family Offices and member of the board of directors of the Walt Disney Company the Coca Cola Company and Avon Products Inc From the Hardcover edition Economic Woman Frances Raday,2019-05-14 The author introduces the concept of economic woman and makes her visible in duality with and opposition to the exclusive model of economic man Economic man has epitomized neo liberal capitalism which embraces competition and maximization of profit resulting in a steep increase in economic inequality The book demonstrates that women s inequality is a crucial factor in economic inequality which cannot be fully understood without relating to women s situation and that economic woman cannot thrive in the conditions of economic inequality created under global neo liberalism Emphasising the international human rights guarantees of women s right to equality in all fields of life the author documents woman s increased participation in political public financial and corporate institutions employment and entrepreneurship with some women reaching high profile positions Nevertheless using global data she reveals that economic woman lags behind with a severe economic power deficit an unfulfilled promise of equal employment opportunity a gendered impact of poverty and barriers to gender equality in the family The book analyses the trap of women s increased burden of breadwinning in the context of discriminatory laws and practices infrastructural failures and policy gaps which preempt achievement of gender equality in economic life The book is intended for the general reader academics students policy makers and NGOs It shows economic woman at a global crossroads between a universal paradigm of gender equality and pervasive barriers to equal economic opportunity The author demonstrates that tackling gender inequality restoring welfare priorities and reducing economic inequality are inextricably linked Human rights and governments have a vital role to play in addressing them all to create a sustainable economic infrastructure for the lives of women and men Letters from a Self-made Merchant to His Son George Horace Lorimer,1903 Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen,2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children s Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children s literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur

the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children s literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children s biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape

Women's Literary Portraits in the Victorian and Neo-Victorian Novel Aleksandra Tryniecka,2023-01-10

Women s Literary Portraits in the Victorian and Neo Victorian Novel is a dialogical and intertextual journey through the pages of nineteenth century novels and their modern revisionary counterparts It is the book not only dedicated to the readers associated with academia but also to all literature enthusiasts students of literature and those readers who are fascinated by the Victorian novel as well as by its current neo Victorian revival The focus of this work revolves around the literary portrayals of Victorian and neo Victorian women who as the authoress believes are located in the centre of socio cultural and historical narratives shaping both the past and the present Nineteenth century narratives concerning women s placement and status in the Victorian social landscape are currently revived on the pages of neo Victorian novels thus attesting to the unceasing interest in the bygone While neo Victorian revisionary fiction endows nineteenth century women with a redemptive potential it also exposes modern paradoxes and ambiguities connected with universal expectations towards women what further approximates our contemporaneity to the Victorian past While examining these socio cultural ambivalences the authoress celebrates Victorian and neo Victorian women characters in their attempts to thrive as individuals Consequently the book studies Victorian and neo Victorian women characters in relation to their identities unique voices and textual garments
