American Perspectives

Harley Flack, Edmund D. Pellegrino

American Perspectives:

American Perspectives, 1992 The Vietnam War: Vietnamese and American Perspectives Jayne Werner, Luu Doan Huynh, 2015-02-18 This volume derives from an unprecedented seminar held at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs in November 1990. At the seminar leading Western diplomatic and military historians and Vietnam scholars met with prominent Vietnamese Communists to reflect on the Vietnam War. The book contains four parts: The Vietnamese Revolution and Political Military strategy; the war from the American side; the war in the South and Cambodia; and retrospective and postwar issues. In addition to Jane Werner and Luu Doan Huynh, the contributors are Mark Bradley, William Duiker, David Elliott, Christine White, George Vickers, James Harrison, George Herring, Ronald Spector, Paul Joseph, Jeffrey Clarke, Ngo Vinh Long, Benedict Kiernan, Marilyn Young, Keith Taylor, and Tran Van Tra. General Tra was Commander of the People's Liberation Armed Forces of South Vietnam from 1963 to 1975. His eye-opening analysis of the Tet Offensive has never before been available in English.

African-American Perspectives on Biomedical Ethics Harley Flack, Edmund D. Pellegrino, 1992. By analyzing the amalgam of Greek philosophy, Jewish and Christian teachings, and secular humanism that composes our dominant ethical system, the authors of this volume explore the question of whether or not Western and non-Western moral values can be commingled without bilateral loss of cultural integrity. They take as their philosophical point of departure the observation that both ethical relativism and ethical absolutism have become morally indefensible in the context of the multicultural American life, and they variously consider the need for an ethical middle ground.

Fears For Democracy Regarded From the American Point of View. by Charles Ingersoll. Charles Ingersoll, 1875. Excerpt from Fears for Democracy Regarded From the American Point of View. These pages which have been much curtailed from what were prepared for the press in the hope by diminishing their number of increasing the chance of their being read rest on a position not indeed very new that it is from the people government like ours must take its measure that democratic institutions are meaningless when the people leave the watch beginning to ag when a single citizen deserts his duty and getting worse and worse as skulking goes on. Power in the City Marion Orr, Valerie C. Johnson, 2008. A collection of thirteen essays considered classics in the field of urban politics.

from leading scholar Clarence Stone with new essays by the editors and by Stone himself that contextualize the impact of his previous works and suggest new directions for researchers

Working the Navajo Way Colleen M. O'Neill, 2005 O'Neill chronicles a history of Navajo labor that illuminates how cultural practices and values influenced what it meant to work for wages or to produce commodities for the marketplace Through accounts of Navajo coal miners weavers and those who left the reservation in search of wage work she explores the tension between making a living the Navajo way and working elsewhere

BOOK JACKET African American Research Perspectives, 2000 Deliberative Democracy and the Plural Polity Michael Rabinder James, 2004 In this pathbreaking work the author integrates questions of justice and stability through a model of deliberative democracy in the plural polity Deliberative Democracy and the Plural Polity provides a realistic but critical reform agenda that can animate struggles for justice in an enormously diverse world

The Forum, 1929 Current political social scientific education and literary news written about by many famous authors and reform movements

Forum and Column Review, 1929 Proceedings of the Convention, Addresses and Committee Reports, 1922 American Problems from the Point of View of a Psychologist Hugo Münsterberg, 1910 Fears for Democracy Regarded from the American Point of View Charles Ingersoll, 1875 Class and Community in Frontier Colorado Richard Hogan, 1990 A significant contribution to historical sociology that shows how economic class relations within frontier communities determined the shape of the political system

Scott G McNall Monthly Bibliography United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 1997 The OSS and Ho Chi Minh Dixee R. Bartholomew-Feis, 2006 Some will be shocked to find out that the United States and Ho Chi Minh our nemesis for much of the Vietnam War were once allies Indeed during the last year of World War II American spies in Indochina found themselves working closely with Ho Chi Minh and other anti colonial factions compelled by circumstances to fight together against the Japanese Dixee Bartholomew Feis reveals how this relationship emerged and operated and how it impacted Vietnam's struggle for independence Although the OSS did not bring Ho Chi Minh to power Bartholomew Feis shows that its apparent support for the Viet Minh played a significant symbolic role in helping them fill the power vacuum left in the wake of Japan's surrender Her study also hints that had America continued to champion the anti colonials and their quest for independence rather than caving in to the French we might have been spared our long and very lethal war in Vietnam Based partly on interviews with surviving OSS agents who served in Vietnam Bartholomew Feis's engaging narrative and compelling insights speak to the yearnings of an oppressed people and remind us that history does indeed make strange bedfellows
