Americathe View From Europe:

America--the View from Europe John Martin Evans,1976 America and Europe David C. Gompert,F. Stephen Larrabee,1998-06-28 This volume offers the first detailed statement by a contingent of RAND thinkers on the contours of a redefined Atlantic partnership

America And Europe In An Era Of Change Helga Haftendorn,2019-03-11 What will the new world order look like a tripole a layer cake a concert hall Will Europe and the United States continue in their tradition of interdependence and admiration or emerge as economic rivals political strangers and cultural antipodes as the rest of the world notably Japan moves forward These are just some of the questions explored

America and the Intellectual Cold Wars in Europe Volker R. Berghahn,2018-06-05 In 1958 Shepard Stone then directing the Ford Foundation s International Affairs program suggested that his staff measure America s cultural impact in Europe He wanted to determine whether efforts to improve opinions of American culture were yielding good returns Taking Stone s career as a point of departure and frequent return Volker Berghahn examines the triangular relationship between the producers of ideas and ideologies corporate America and Washington policymakers at a peculiar juncture of U S history He also looks across the Atlantic at the Western European intellectuals politicians and businessmen with whom these Americans were in frequent contact While shattered materially and psychologically by World War II educated Europeans did not shed their opinions about the inferiority vulgarity and commercialism of American culture American elites particularly the East Coast establishment deeply resented this condescension They believed that the United States had two culture wars to win one against the Soviet Bloc as part of the larger struggle against communism and the other against deeply rooted negative views of America as a civilization To triumph they spent large sums of money on overt and covert activities from tours of American orchestras to the often secret funding of European publications and intellectual congresses by the CIA At the center of these activities were the Ford Foundation the Congress for Cultural Freedom and Washington s agents of cultural diplomacy This was a world of Ivy League academics and East Coast intellectuals of American philanthropic organizations and their backers in big business of U S government agencies and their counterparts across the Atlantic This book uses Shepard Stone as a window to this world in which the European American relationship was hammered out in cultural terms an arena where many of the twentieth century s major intellectual trends and conflicts unfolded
