Denali Deception Defeat And Triumph:

Denali Frederick Albert Cook, Belmore Browne, Hudson Stuck, 2001 Reissues historically important McKinley writings Three stories in one collector's volume The Ascent of Denali is accompanied by the diary of Walter Harper the half Athabascan half Irish guide and dog team handler who was the first person to set foot on the summit The stories of the fake the almost and the actual first ascent of North America's highest peak are joined in one unabridged volume for the first time In To the Top of the Continent Dr Frederick A Cook describes his glorious and rapid climb to the peak a claim that has been widely discredited Belmore Browne next reveals the heartache of turning back a mere hundred yards from the summit in The Conquest of Mount McKinley Finally Hudson Stuck tells how his team of amateur climbers but experienced Alaska travelers reached the summit in The Ascent of Denali Together these three narratives comprise a unique history of the stakes passions and challenges involved in making Mount McKinley's first ascent Joe Quigley, Alaska Pioneer Cheryl Fair, 2020-01-17

In May 1891 Joe Quigley embarked on a journey north to try his luck prospecting for gold in Alaska Although he had been wandering across America since leaving home at 15 this would be the biggest adventure and the biggest risk Quigley had ever taken A project that began as genealogical research into a family's history this biography traces the life of a fascinating character before during and after the great Klondike gold rush Deeply researched including quotes from Quigley and numerous photographs this book is more than another tale of the Klondike Gold Rush It is an intimate look at the inspiring life of a pioneer prospector who witnessed the exploration and development of one of America's most harsh beautiful and captivating landscapes A Window to Heaven Patrick Dean, 2021-03-02 The captivating and heroic story of Hudson Stuck an Episcopal priest and his team's history making summit of Denali In 1913 four men made a months long journey by dog sled to the base of the tallest mountain in North America Several groups had already tried but failed to reach the top of a mountain whose size occupying 120 square miles of the earth's surface and position as the Earth's northernmost peak of more than 6 000 meters elevation make it one of the world's deadliest mountains Although its height from base to top is actually greater than Everest's it is Denali's weather not altitude that have caused the great majority of fatalities over a hundred since 1903 Denali experiences weather more severe than the North Pole with temperatures of forty below zero and winds that howl at 80 to 100 miles per hour for days at a stretch But in 1913 none of this mattered to Hudson Stuck a fifty year old Episcopal priest Harry Karstens the hardened Alaskan wilderness guide Walter Harper and Robert Tatum both just in their twenties They were all determined to be the first to set foot on top of Denali In A Window to Heaven Patrick Dean brings to life this heart pounding and spellbinding feat of this first ascent and paints a rich portrait of the frontier at the turn of the twentieth century The story of Stuck and his team will lead us through the Texas frontier and Tennessee mountains to an encounter with Jack London at the peak of the Yukon Goldrush We experience Stuck's awe at the rich Aleut and Athabascan indigenous traditions and his efforts to help preserve these ways of life Filled with daring exploration and rich
