Walker,2001-12-21 John Walker brings to vivid life a neglected period in twentieth century art history He re creates a time when visual fine artists under the impact of left wing politics women s liberation and the gay movement were seeking to re establish a social purpose His story is one of a struggle for art by contending factions in the art world in which artists curators critics and organisations both establishment and alternative key exhibitions galleries and magazines all play a part He offers welcome insight into the work of the key players and the many forms they used to express radical engagement in the events of the decade Performance ,1988 Denis Masi Stuart Morgan,South Hill Park Arts Centre (Bracknell, Berks.),1983 Denis Masi - 1 Construction + Drawings, Etchings, Photographs ,1981 The Routledge Companion to Biology in Art and Architecture Charissa Terranova,Meredith Tromble,2016-08-12 The Routledge Companion to Biology in Art and Architecture collects thirty essays from a transdisciplinary array of experts on biology in art and architecture The book presents a diversity of hybrid art and science thinking revealing how science and culture are interwoven The book situates bioart and bioarchitecture within an expanded field of biology in art architecture and design It proposes an emergent field of biocreativity and outlines its historical and theoretical foundations from the perspective of artists architects designers scientists historians and theoreticians Includes over 150 black and white images A History of Artists' Film and Video in Britain David Curtis,2019-07-25 In recent years the use of film and video by British artists has come to widespread public attention Jeremy Deller Douglas Gordon Steve McQueen and Gillian Wearing all won the Turner Prize in 2004 1996 1999 and 1997 respectively for work made on video This fin de siecle explosion of activity represents the culmination of a long history of work by less well known artists and experimental film makers Ever since the invention of film in the 1890s artists have been attracted to the possibilities of working with moving images whether in pursuit of visual poetry the exploration of the art form s technical challenges the hope of political impact or the desire to re invigorate such time honoured subjects as portraiture and landscape Their work represents an alternative history to that of commercial cinema in Britain a tradition that has been only intermittently written about until now This major new book is the first comprehensive history of artists film and video in Britain Structured in two parts Institutions and Artists and Movements it considers the work of some 300 artists including Kenneth Macpherson Basil Wright Len Lye Humphrey Jennings Margaret Tait Jeff Keen Carolee Schneemann Yoko Ono Malcolm Le Grice Peter Gidal William Raban Chris Welsby David Hall Tamara Krikorian Sally Potter Guy Sherwin Lis Rhodes Derek Jarman David Larcher Steve Dwoskin James Scott Peter Wollen and Laura Mulvey Peter Greenaway Patrick Keiller John Smith Andrew Stones Jaki Irvine Tracy Emin Dryden Goodwin and Stephanie Smith and Ed Stewart Written by the leading authority in the field A History of Artists Film and Video in Britain 1897 2004 brings to light the range and diversity of British artists work in these mediums as well as the artist run organisations that have supported the art form s development In so doing it greatly enlarges the scope of any understanding of British cinema and demonstrates the crucial importance of the moving image to British art history
