Dialogue and Narrative Design in the Works of Adalbert Stifter Brigid Haines, 1991 This study focuses on the crucial interplay between dialogue and narrative in Adalbert Stifter's works and relates this to their overall structure Stifter a conservative and often didactic writer is nevertheless shown to present a complex view of reality which incorporates subjective and sometimes subversive voices

The German Novel Roy Pascal, 1956 A Companion to the Works of Adalbert Stifter Sean M. Ireton, 2025

Presents Stifter's multi-faceted oeuvre to both a German Studies and non-specialized Anglophone audience showing today's readers the relevance of its concerns The canonical nineteenth century Austrian writer Adalbert Stifter 1805-1868 long considered a staid stylist if not mannerist and a conservative bourgeois apologist has recently become the subject of more vibrant literary theoretical approaches While Stifter is primarily known for his fictional prose including two lengthy novels Der Nachsommer Indian Summer and Witiko and numerous novella length narratives he also wrote dozens of cultural political and scientific essays Moreover his professional activity in the Austrian school system and his diverse publications in the realm of pedagogy not only shed interpretive light on his literary production but also inform enduring debates on education reform and the intellectual historical question of Bildung This volume covers a wide range of texts and topics within Stifter's oeuvre With respect to literary historical coverage it extends from his earliest tale Der Condor The Condor 1840 to his posthumously published chronicle Aus dem bairischen Walde From the Bavarian Forest 1868 in terms of genre it embraces his novels and novellas his essayistic work and even his landscape paintings finally it pursues a host of deeper problems and thematic strands that permeate his texts and make them relevant to readers today These include neo-conservatism social unrest law and order ecology climatology bioregionalism and the Anthropocene

At the Limit of the Obscene Erica Weitzman, 2021-02-15 As German language literature turned in the mid nineteenth century to the depiction of the profane sensual world a corresponding anxiety emerged about the terms of that depiction with consequences not only for realist poetics but also for the conception of the material world itself At the Limit of the Obscene examines the roots and repercussions of this anxiety in German realist and postrealist literature Through analyses of works by Adalbert Stifter

Gustav Freytag Theodor Fontane Arno Holz Gottfried Benn and Franz Kafka Erica Weitzman shows how German realism s conflicted representations of the material world lead to an idea of the obscene as an excess of sensual appearance beyond human meaning the obverse of the anthropocentric worldview that German realism both propagates and pushes to its crisis At the Limit of the Obscene thus brings to light the troubled and troubling ontology underlying German realism at the same time demonstrating how its works continue to shape our ideas about representability alterity and the relationship of human beings to the non human well into the present day
