Barrack Room Ballads:

Barrack Room Ballads Rudyard Kipling, 2018-10-17 The Barrack Room Ballads are a series of songs and poems by Rudyard Kipling dealing with the late Victorian British Army and mostly written in a vernacular dialect. The series contains some of Kipling's most well-known work, including the poems Gunga Din, Tommy Mandalay, and Danny Deever, helping consolidate his early fame as a poet.

Barrack Room Ballads Rudyard Kipling, 2017-08-03 How is this book unique? Font adjustments while they were titled Service Songs, they fit well with the themes of the earlier ballads and are clearly connected. Charles Carrington produced the first comprehensive volume of the Ballads in 1973, mainly drawn from these three collections but including five additional pieces not previously collected under the title. Three of these date from the same period: an untitled vernacular poem, My girl she gave me the go onst, taken from a short story, The Courting of Dinah Shadd in Life's Handicap, 1891; Bobs, 1892 or 1898, a citation needed; a poem praising Lord Roberts and The Absent Minded Beggar, 1899, a poem written to raise funds for the families of soldiers called up for the Boer War. The remaining two date from the First World War: Carrington considered Epitaphs of the War, written in a first person style, and Gethsemane, also in a soldier's voice, to meet his definition. Both were published in The Years Between, 1919. Kipling wrote profusely on military themes during the war but often from a more detached perspective than the first person vernacular he had previously adopted. Finally, there are some confusingly captioned pieces. Many of Kipling's short stories were introduced with a short fragment of poetry, sometimes from an existing poem and sometimes an incidental new piece. These were often identified as a Barrack Room Ballad, though not all the poems they were taken from would otherwise be collected or classed this way. This includes pieces such as the introductory poem to My Lord the Elephant from Many Inventions, 1899, later collected in Songs from Books, but not identified as a Ballad. It is not clear if these were deliberately omitted by Carrington or if he explicitly chose not to include them.
