Sequential Mathematics

Course 1 Success Stories

When students succeed, they learn to love math. They learn to work hard, to persevere, and to believe in themselves. They learn to work together, to help each other, and to celebrate their successes. They learn to be confident, to take risks, and to embrace challenges. They learn to be curious, to ask questions, and to seek answers. They learn to be resilient, to bounce back from setbacks, and to keep going. They learn to be proud of their progress, to take ownership of their learning, and to strive for excellence. They learn to be lifelong learners, to embrace change, and to embrace the future.
