Charlotte Rogers,2019-06-13 What ever happened to the legend of El Dorado the tale of the mythical city of gold lost in the Amazon jungle Charlotte Rogers argues that El Dorado has not been forgotten and still inspires the reckless pursuit of illusory wealth The search for gold in South America during the colonial period inaugurated the promise of El Dorado the belief that wealth and happiness can be found in the tropical forests of the Americas That assumption has endured over the course of centuries still evident in the various modes of natural resource extraction such as oil drilling and mining that characterize the region today Mourning El Dorado looks at how fiction from the American tropics written since 1950 engages with the promise of El Dorado in the age of the Anthropocene Just as the golden kingdom was never found natural resource extraction has not produced wealth and happiness for the peoples of the tropics While extractivism enriches a few outsiders it results in environmental degradation and the subjugation displacement and forced assimilation of native peoples This book considers how the fiction of five writers Alejo Carpentier Wilson Harris Mario Vargas Llosa Ivaro Mutis and Milton Hatoum criticizes extractive practices and mourns the lost illusion of the forest as a place of wealth and happiness The Latin

American Story Finder Sharon Barcan Elswit,2015-10-07 Anything is possible in the world of Latin American folklore where Aunt Misery can trap Death in a pear tree Amazonian dolphins lure young girls to their underwater city and the Feathered Snake brings the first musicians to Earth One in a series of folklore reference guides an invaluable resource School Library Journal this book features summaries and sources of 470 tales told in Mexico Central America and South America a region underrepresented in collections of world folklore The volume sends users to the best stories retold in English from the Inca Maya and Aztec civilizations Spanish and Portuguese missionaries and colonists African slave cultures indentured servants from India and more than 75 indigenous tribes from 21 countries The tales are grouped into themed sections with a detailed subject index Why Do Men Barbecue? Richard A. Shweder,2003 Why do American children sleep alone instead of with their parents Why do middle aged Western women yearn for their youth while young wives in India look forward to being middle aged In these essays the author reminds us that cultural differences in mental life lie at the heart of any understanding of the human condition Drawing on ethnographic studies of the distinctive modes of psychological functioning in communities around the world Richard Shweder explores ethnic and cultural differences in ideals of gender in the life of the emotions in conceptions of mature adulthood and the stages of life and in moral judgments about right and wrong The knowable world Shweder observes is incomplete if seen from any one point of view incoherent if seen from all points of view at once and empty if seen from nowhere in particular This work strives for the view from manywheres in a culturally diverse yet interdependent world Barbecue Sauces, Rubs, and Marinades--Bastes, Butters & Glazes, Too Steven
