Bosch, Isabel Alvarez Borland, 2009-01-08 This fascinating volume contains interviews with nineteen prominent Cuban American artists writers and philosophers who tell their stories and share what they consider important for understanding their work Struggling with issues of Cuban American identity in particular and social identity in general they explore such questions as how they see themselves how they have dealt with the diaspora and their memories what they have done to find a proper place in their adopted country and how their work has been influenced by the experience Their answers reveal different perspectives on art literature and philosophy and the different challenges encountered personally and professionally The interviews are gathered into three groups nine artists six writers and four philosophers An introductory essay for each group is included and the interviews are accompanied by brief biographical notes along with samples of the work of those interviewed Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera, 2011-07-11 As an island a geographical space with mutable and porous borders Cuba has never been a fixed cultural political or geographical entity Migration and exile have always informed the Cuban experience and loss and displacement have figured as central preoccupations among Cuban artists and intellectuals A major expression of this experience is the unconventional multi generational itinerant and ongoing art exhibit CAF The Journeys of Cuban Artists In Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O Reilly Herrera focuses on the CAF project to explore Cuba s long and turbulent history of movement and rupture from the perspective of its visual arts and to meditate upon the manner in which one reconstitutes and reinvents the self in the context of diaspora Approaching the Cafeteros art from a cultural studies perspective O Reilly Herrera examines how the history of Cuba informs their work and establishes their connections to past generations of Cuban artists In interviews with more than thirty artists including Jos Bedia Mar a Brito Leandro Soto Glexis Novoa Baruj Salinas and Ana Albertina Delgado O Reilly Herrera also raises critical questions regarding the many and sometimes paradoxical ways diasporic subjects self affiliate or situate themselves in the narratives of scattering and displacement She demonstrates how the Cafeteros artmaking involves a process of re rooting absorption translation and synthesis that simultaneously conserves a series of identifiable Cuban cultural elements while re inscribing and transforming them in new contexts An important contribution to both diasporic and transnational studies and discussions of contemporary Cuban art Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora ultimately testifies to the fact that a long tradition of Cuban art is indeed flourishing outside the island Jews of Florida: Centuries of Stories Marcia Jo Zerivitz, 2020 This first comprehensive history of the Jews of Florida from colonial times to the present is a sweeping tapestry of voices Despite not being officially allowed to live in Florida until 1763 Jewish immigrants escaping expulsions and exclusions were among the earliest settlers They have been integral to every facet of Florida s growth from tilling the land and developing early communities to boosting tourism and ultimately pushing mankind into space The Sunshine State s Jews working for the common good have been Olympians Nobel Prize winners computer pioneers educators politicians leaders in business and the arts and more while maintaining their heritage to help ensure Jewish continuity for future generations This rich narrative accompanied by 700 images most rarely seen is the result of three plus decades of grassroots research by author Marcia Jo Zerivitz giving readers an incomparable look at the long and crucial history of Jews in Florida
