Vail,2001-08-15 The selection process for the Baseball Hall of Fame at Cooperstown New York has been the same for sixty years Two sets of electors are used both of which vote each year using subjective criteria that inevitably cause errors of selection and omission One group the Baseball Writers Association of America votes by mail using a pre selected list of retired players that meet eligibility requirements The second group of electors is the Veterans Committee comprised of former players who are Hall of Fame members plus retired baseball executives and sportswriters who meet in Florida during spring training and base their votes on the merits of candidates no longer eligible for the BBWAA ballot In this work the author combines an irreverent critique of the voting process with an analysis of the biases that have fostered questionable choices in Hall of Fame voting The result is a comprehensive statistically founded survey of the factors which influence election Baseball Memories & Dreams The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum,2022-10-04 Discover What Made Baseball America s Pastime 1 New Release in Baseball Statistics Baseball Memories stories on the rich iconography and history of the game across the full diversity of players teams and leagues and reflections on the way America s pastime has shaped our culture Selected from the Baseball Hall of Fame s member magazine Baseball Memories Dreams brings to life the best of baseball More than just a baseball history book Revel in America s pastime and explore baseball history in articles written by notable sports writers Hall of Famers media personalities and the Hall s own expert historians Baseball Memories Dreams showcases the best of baseball facts baseball biographies and baseball media personalities into a robust catalogue of known and unknown information Get the inside scoop into the lives of baseball giants like Johnny Bench Peter Gammons John
