

Clock-a-clay

*In the cowslip pips I lie,
Hidden from the buzzing fly,
While green grass beneath me lies,
Pearled with dew like fishes' eyes,
Here I lie, a clock-a-clay,
Waiting for the time of day.*

*While the forest quakes surprise,
And the wild wind sobs and sighs,
My home rocks as like to fall,
On its pillar green and tall;
When the pattering rain drives by
Clock-a-clay keeps warm and dry.*

*Day by day and night by night,
All the week I hide from sigh;
In the cowslip pips I lie,
In rain and dew still warm and dry;
Day and night, and night and day,
Red, black-spotted clock-a-clay.*

*My home shakes in wind and showers,
Pale green pillar topped with flowers,
Bending at the wild wind's breath,
Till I touch the grass beneath;
Here I live, lone clock-a-clay,
Watching for the time of day.*

Clock Of Clay Poems:

Clock of Clay Robert Hazel,1992      Clock-O'-Clay by John Clare , As part of Passions in Poetry Ron Carnell provides the full text of the poem entitled Clock O Clay This poem was written by the English poet John Clare 1793 1864 who was one of the major poets of the Romantic movement in literature      Animal Poems John Hollander,2004 Collection of poems about animals from around the world      John Clare and the Place of Poetry Mina Gorji,2008-01-01 Traditional accounts of Romantic poetry have depicted John Clare as a peripheral figure an original genius whose talents removed him from the mainstream This volume helps to show that far from being brilliant yet isolated Clare was deeply involved in the rich cultural life of both his village and the larger metropolis Offering an account of Clare s poems as they relate to the literary culture and burgeoning literary history of his day Mina Gorji defines the context in which Clare s work can best be understood in relation to eighteenth century traditions as they persisted and developed in the Romantic period      An Anthology of Pure Poetry George Moore,1924      Poetry Please Various Poets,2013-10-01 BBC Radio 4 s Poetry Please is the longest running broadcast of verse anywhere in the world First aired in 1979 the programme a request show which broadcasts to two million listeners a week has become a unique record of the country s best loved poems over the decades since its inception The BBC has looked back through its rich archive of recordings to produce a poll of the most asked for and most broadcast pieces ever it is those poems that this anthology brings together here A showcase in effect for the nation s favourite verse Poetry Please is a treasure trove for our most requested and most listened to poems of all time It is a compelling invitation for readers of all ages and backgrounds to celebrate the verse that we care so much about from new readers to old from schools to reading groups this a book for giving a book for cherishing      The Broadview Anthology of Romantic Poetry Joseph Black,Leonard Conolly,Kate Flint,Isobel Grundy,Don LePan,Roy Liuzza,Jerome J. Life and Remains of John Clare, The "Northamptonshire Peasant Poet" John Clare, 2019-12-16 In Life and Remains of John Clare The Northamptonshire Peasant Poet readers are presented with a compelling blend of autobiography and critical reflection showcasing the life of one of England's most significant Romantic poets. Clare's narrative is marked by its vivid imagery and deep connection to the rural landscapes of Northamptonshire, revealing his profound appreciation for nature amidst the struggles of peasant life. The book combines his personal experiences with a nuanced understanding of the social and political contexts of the time, illustrating Clare's challenges as a working class artist in a rapidly industrializing society. John Clare (1793-1864) emerged from a humble agricultural background which shaped his unique perspective on nature and humanity. His intense love for the countryside and acute observations of rural life informed his poetry, while his own battles with mental health and societal challenges added layers of complexity to his work. Clare's correspondence with other literary figures of the time highlights his aspiration for recognition and understanding beyond his marginalized existence as a peasant. This book is an essential read for those interested in English literature and the Romantic movement. Clare's unique voice and his poignant reflections on nature and the human condition resonate powerfully today, making this collection a vital resource for scholars, students, and anyone seeking to understand the intersection of art, identity, and environment.

Poems for Study Leonard Unger, William Van O'Connor, 1953 A Treasury of Great Poems, English and American Louis Untermeyer, 1955 980 works are included in this collection of English and American poetry. Includes interpretive and biographical material. Early American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases Bartlett Jere Whiting, 1977 p. B. J. Whiting savors proverbial expressions and has devoted much of his lifetime to studying and collecting them; no one knows more about British and American proverbs than he. The present volume, based upon writings in British North America from the earliest settlements to approximately 1820, complements his and Archer Taylor's Dictionary of American Proverbs and Proverbial Phrases 1820-1880. It differs from that work and from other standard collections, however, in that its sources are primarily not literary but instead workaday writings: letters, diaries, histories, travel books, political pamphlets, and the like. The authors represent a wide cross-section of the populace, from scholars and statesmen to farmers, shopkeepers, sailors, and hunters. Mr. Whiting has combed all the obvious sources and hundreds of out-of-the-way publications of local journals and historical societies. This body of material, because it covers territory that has not been extracted and compiled in a scholarly way before, can justly be said to be the most valuable of all those that Whiting has brought together. According to Albert B. Friedman, what makes the work important is Whiting's authority: a proverb or proverbial phrase is what B. J. Whiting thinks is a proverb or proverbial phrase. There is no objective operative definition of any value; no divining rod; his tact, feel, experience determine what's the real thing and what is spurious. Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta
