Close Up A Critical Perspective On Film:

Close Up Craig Padawer, 2012-01-16 Critical Perspectives on Michael Finnissy Ian Pace, Nigel McBride, 2019-05-24 The composer and pianist Michael Finnissy b 1946 is an unmistakable presence in the British and international new music scene both for his immeasurable generosity as prolific composer for many different types of musicians major advocate for the works of others and performer and conductor who has also been a driving force behind ensembles he was also President of the International Society for Contemporary Music from 1990 to 1996 His vast and enormously varied output confounds those who seek easy categorisations once associated strongly with the new complexity Finnissy is equally known as composer regularly engaged with many different folk musics for working with amateur and community musicians for a long term engagement with sacred music or as an advocate of Anglo American experimental music Twenty years ago a large scale volume entitled Uncommon Ground The Music of Michael Finnissy gave the first major overview of the output of any complex composer This new volume brings a greater plurality of perspectives and critical sensibility to bear upon an output which is almost twice as large as it was when the earlier book was published A range of leading contributors musicologists composers performers and others each grapple with particular questions relating to Finnissy s music often in ways which raise questions relating more widely to new music and provide theoretical foundations for further of study both of Finnissy and other composers Communal Modernisms E. Hinnov, L. Rosenblum, L. Harris, 2013-05-07 Drawing from recent research that seeks to expand our understanding of modernism this volume offers practical pedagogical approaches for teaching modernist literature and culture in the twenty first century classroom The Film Anthologies Index Stephen E. Bowles, 1994-10 The Film Anthologies Index is a bibliographical resource essential to any person or institution interested in the study of film No publication or database currently indexes the contents of these important anthologies There are over 600 anthologies by both multiple and single authors in English that have been published through 1991 These anthologies contain over 10 000 stand alone pieces that 1 reprint articles from their original source 2 select excerpts from book length publications and 3 include original essays appearing only in a specialized anthology Without The Film Anthologies Index the researcher would have no guide to the valuable contents between the covers of these anthologies Much more than just a guide to the contents of anthologies the main section consists of 6 563 numbered entries that alphabetically list by author the contents of each piece found in the anthologies You could find for example all pieces written by a particular author which have appeared in the anthologies Additionally every author entry refers the user to all the anthologized sources which contain each specific piece For example Robert Warshow s landmark essay on Movie Chronicle The Westerner can be found in 9 different anthologies or that selected essays by Sergei Einstein appear in over 50 separate anthologies Without The Film Anthologies Index there would be no way to systematically locate these buried treasures The final section of The Film Anthologies Index consists of an extensive listing of all film titles individual names specific genres countries periods studios etc as well as all key words and phrases that appear in the titles of the included pieces There are approximately 7000 topics covered in this section The user friendly layout of this reference source makes it both a comprehensive resource for everyone from the casual movie goer who wants a deeper understanding of the medium to the dedicated film scholar who is pursuing material on Hitchcock Richard Allen, Sam Ishii-Gonzales, 2004-08-02 This new collection of writings on Alfred Hitchcock considers Hitchcock both in his time and as a continuing influence on filmmakers films and film theory The contributions who include leading scholars such as Slavoj Zizek Laura Mulvey Peter Wollen and James Naremore discuss canonical films such as Notorious and The Birds alongside lesser known works including Juno and the Paycock and Frenzy Articles are grouped into four thematic sections Authorship and Aesthetics examines Hitchcock as auteur and investigates central topics in Hitchcockian aesthetics French Hitchcock looks at Hitchcock's influence on filmmakers such as Chabrol Truffaut and Rohmer and how film critics such as Bazin and Deleuze have engaged with Hitchcock's work Poetics and Politics of Identity explores the representation of personal and political in Hitchcock's work The final section Death and Transfiguration addresses the manner in which the spectacle and figuration of death haunts the narrative universe of Hitchcock's films in particular his subversive masterpiece Psycho Close Up, 1928

Authenticity and Adaptation Christina Wilkins, 2025-02-24 This collection seeks to explore what authenticity means in the context of adaptation whether there is such a thing as an authentic adaptation and what authenticity can offer for adaptation It does so through four specific sections each thinking through related questions raised by the theme By outlining theoretical approaches to authenticity querying authorship's relationship to adaptation the role of medium and the place or value of the audience this collection brings together a holistic perspective of authenticity that will intervene in the contemporary debates within adaptation Authenticity's increasing importance in the zeitgeist filters through to adaptation yet it is something that has not been explicitly debated or discussed within the field As such this collection both highlights and attempts to fill a gap in scholarship Close Up Kenneth Macpherson, 1928 Film Theory and Criticism Gerald Mast, Marshall Cohen, Leo Braudy, 1992 Revised and updated to incorporate suggestions from film instructors and critics nationwide the fourth edition of this classic text is a thorough introduction to the evolving aesthetics and controversies of nearly a century from the earliest attempts to define the cinema to the most recent efforts to place film in the context of psychology sociology and philosophy Building upon the wide range of selections and extensive historical coverage that marked the previous editions 37 essays have been added The editors have rewritten chapter introductions and revised each section to show the impact of new thinking on the continuing debate over the nature of film reality the film image film genre and the film performer The sections on genre the film artist and the relation of film to the other arts have been greatly expanded Several essays addressing the issue of film sound have also been included Film/Music Analysis Emilio Audissino, 2017-10-14 This book offers an approach to film music in which music and visuals are seen as equal players in the game The field of Film Music

Studies has been increasingly dominated by musicologists and this book brings the discipline back squarely into the domain of Film Studies Blending Neoformalism with Gestalt Psychology and Leonard B Meyer s musicology this study treats music as a cinematic element and offers scholars and students of both music and film a set of tools to help them analyse the wide ranging impact that music has in films
