Our Share of Time Yves Navarre, 1988 When it happens you don t expect it You don t expect anything anymore You lose your head for just a second and someone walks into your life turns it upside down tenderly brutally making a place for himself Even before anything has happened it s already too late You can t tell who is choosing whom when how why You only know these things later when everything is over and each person holds the other accountable for what has gone on These opening lines from Our Share of Time begin a story concerned with the impossibility of sustaining love or even understanding how and why it started In this diarylike reminiscence Pierre Forgue a Parisian school teacher offers us an apologia for his past and present life as well as a bleak picture of his future Moving between his Paris apartment and his summer cottage in Peyroc he vacillates between love and indifference between Duck the young man who casually enters his life and who callously departs and the rest of the world between lost youth and approaching middle age His is the universal midlife crisis accentuated by the presence of Duck the now you see him now you don't young and handsome intruder who brings both happiness and misery This novel about the difficulty of maintaining lasting relationships succeeds by the painstaking honesty with which Yves Navarre records events whose ending is happy painful and sweet Walking Forward, Looking Back Dinah Latham,2014-10-28 The book tells the story of a retired district nurse and midwife reflecting on her life whilst walking with her close companion Harriet the dog It is a touchingly honest work written straight from the heart The reader will both laugh and cry as the author recounts many moving stories of patients cared for in 1960s London The writings so patently contrast care in the community then and now that it becomes impossible not to regret the passing of a time when nursing was seen as a vocation when nurses were proud to serve Divorce and single parenthood accompany her career journey while living alone escorts her into retirement It is then that fortune takes a hand or rather a paw and brings Harriet the dog into her life This may just have been the coming together of chance and good timing but destiny or happy accident it was certainly a blessing It was her need to be taken on daily walks that finds our author evoking memories randomly flicking through a lifetime of unwritten diaries Together they share their walks taking the reader through the changing seasons of the Chiltern countryside while also travelling a new pathway one with an unfamiliar landscape a one way journey into growing old This is a voyage of discovery one that promises many unexpected new experiences not the least of which is their most recent pastime shepherding Finding Your Wings Burton S.
