The Indian Wants the Bronx Israel Horovitz, 1968-10 THE STORY An East Indian gets lost on his first day in New York as two teenage punks find him waiting at a lonely bus stop He cannot understand English and the boys have some fun with him at least it starts out as fun But little by little as the minutes go by and the bus doesn t come they get bored then annoyed then vicious It is the very pointlessness of their brutality that makes the play with its awful final image of the Indian jabbering into a dead phone so disturbing We are convinced that this is exactly what would happen at this particular bus stop on this particular night we see again that violence in the big city is as much a child of ennui as of anger And as the nightmare spell of the play takes hold and the boys torture their victim with increasing relish we are brought to a shocking awareness of how thin the veneer of civilization can be of how close beneath the surface of all men lurks the primitive impulse to hurt and humiliate those whose very helplessness and inability to communicate can only frustrate and enrage
