Dune Boy Edwin Way Teale, 1944      Dune Boy Edwin Way Teale, 1957      Dune Boy Joan Gibb Engel, 2001      Dune Boy: the early years of a naturalist ... Illustrations by Cecil W. Bacon Edwin Way Teale, 1949      Toys in the Closet Trent D. Pendley, 2015-08-24 Toys in the Closet is a historical fiction set in the sensuous singing sands of the Indiana dunes on the southern shores of Lake Michigan This is the journey of Nathan Franklin whose family participated in the most vicious confrontation between environmentalists and industrialist over the Hoosier coast Nathan a Jewish writer is out of season visiting his beach home on Christmas Day 97 and exploring the story book rooms of Brighton House a repository of so many works of art by artists who have painted the dunes and a treasury of family heirlooms each with vignettes of a landed past Nathan though lonesome on Christmas in the aftermath of a winter blizzard realizes he isn't alone at all surrounded by his treasures and a very protecting lost lover A story full of Hoosier pride social justice as viewed through the eyes of an accomplished Jewish contemporary at the end of his family's American Dream      Of Prairie, Woods, and Water Joel Greenberg, 2008-05 In the literary imagination Chicago evokes images of industry and unbridled urban growth But the tallgrass prairie and deep forests that once made up Chicago's landscape also inspired musings from residents and visitors alike In Of Prairie Woods and Water naturalist Joel Greenberg gathers these unique voices from the land to present an unexpected portrait of Chicago in this often charming sometimes heart wrenching anthology of nature writing These writings tell the tale of a land in transition one with abundant unique and incredibly lush flora and fauna a natural history quite elusive today Drawing on archives he uncovered while writing his acclaimed A Natural History of the Chicago Region Greenberg hand selected these first person narratives all written between 1721 and 1959 Not every author is familiar but every contribution is distinctive From a pioneer's hilarious notes on life in the Kankakee marsh to Theodore Drieser's poignant plea for conservation of the Tippecanoe River to infamous murderer Nathan Leopold's charming description of a pet robin he kept in prison the sources included are as diverse as the nature they describe The excerpts conclude with insightful biographical essays and traverse a wide area of greater Chicagoland from the Illinois River to southwest Michigan from southern Wisconsin to the Limberlost swamp of northeastern Indiana A fascinating record of Chicago's changing environmental history Of Prairie Woods and Water captures the natural world in a way that will inspire its continued conservation Errata We have learned the title of a book by the Chicago ecologist and writer May Theilgaard Watts has been incorrectly rendered in the selections attributed to Mrs Watts The correct title of her book is Reading the Landscape of America Nature Study Guild Publishers see <http://naturestudy.com> This will be corrected in the next printing We very much regret the error      The Early Years of a Naturalist Dune Boy Edwin Way Teale, 1957      Martial Culture in the Lifeways of US Servicemembers and Veterans Nathan J. Hogan, 2024-02-13 This book develops a new concept martial culture with which to problematize and reframe thinking surrounding the lifeways of US servicemembers by exploring the values beliefs norms and rituals they are exposed to and practice during military service By reuniting the two concepts of servicemember and veteran into one overarching cultural model the author shows how the concept of martial culture can be used to acknowledge the unbroken holistic multidimensional life cycle of an individual Adopting a comparative mythological approach and drawing upon Roman Navajo Hindu Norse and Japanese myths that speak to the lived experiences of servicemembers veterans and their families it weaves together ancient voices and contemporary servicemember experiential existences to offer new insight into the psychological experience of servicemembers It will be of strong interest to psychologists who seek to develop their treatment of veterans by understanding the unique lifeway of service without judgement and offering a balanced integrated spiritual connection while pushing back against both inaccurate assumptions of martial lifeways and the influences of industrialized secular approaches to service It will also appeal to those within the fields of military sociology and psychology
