within wider medicocultural contexts Meredith Conti analyzes how such depictions confirmed or resisted salient constructions of diseases and the diseased Conti s case studies which range from Eleonora Duse s portrayal of the consumptive courtesan Marguerite Gautier to Henry Irving s performance of senile dementia in King Lear help to illuminate the interdependence of medical science and theatre in constructing nineteenth century illness narratives Through reconstructing these performances Conti isolates from the period s acting practices a lexicon of embodied illness a flexible set of physical and vocal techniques that performers employed to theatricalize the sick body In an age when medical science encouraged a gradual decentering of the patient from their own diagnosis and treatment late nineteenth century performances of illness symbolically restored the sick to positions of visibility and consequence Eleonore Duse Jeanne Bordeaux,1971-06 Catalog of the Theatre and Drama Collections: Theatre Collection: books on the theatre. 9 v New York Public Library.
