

ENCOUNTERS cultural histories

Series editors:
Roger Coote
Harriet Ritvo
Carolyn Steedman
Bertrand Taithe

Over the past few decades cultural history has become the discipline of encounters. Beyond the issues raised by the linguistic turn, the work of theorists such as Norbert Elias, Pierre Bourdieu, Michel Foucault or Jacques Derrida has contributed to the emergence of cultural history as a forum for bold and creative exchange. This series responds to place encounters – human, intellectual and disciplinary – at the heart of historical thinking. Encounters will include short, innovative and theoretically informed books from all fields of history. The series will provide an arena for exploring new and reassessed historical subjects, stimulating perceptions and re-perceptions of the past, and methodological challenges and innovations; it will publish at history's cutting edge. The Encounters series will demonstrate that history is the hidden narrative of modernity.

Dust The Archive And Cultural History

Dust The Archive And Cultural History:

Dust Carolyn Steedman,2001 In this witty engaging and challenging book Carolyn Steedman has produced a highly original and sometimes irreverent investigation into the development of modern history writing Dust is about the practice and writing of history Dust considers the immutable stubborn set of beliefs about the material world past and present inherited from the nineteenth century with which modern history writing attempts to grapple Drawing on over five years worth of her own published and unpublished writing the author has produced a sustained argument about the way in which history writing belongs to the currents of thought shaping the modern world Steedman begins by looking at the attention paid to the archive by those working in the humanities and social sciences in recent years what has become known as the practice of archiving By definition the archive is the repository of that which will not go away and the book goes on to suggest that just like dust the matter of history can never go away or be erased Historians who want to think about what it is they do will find this work enlightening and this book is essential reading for all undergraduates and postgraduates studying historiography and history and theory

Dust Carolyn Steedman,2002 Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar,Olusegun Morakinyo,2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring
