Excerpt from Old Dutch and Flemish Masters The publication of this volume requires few words of explanation That it contains in permanent form thirty wood engravings by Timothy Cole after the masterpieces of Dutch and Flemish art is in itself sufficient reason for the book's existence These engravings have been produced in the same manner and with the same skill and care that characterized Mr Cole's earlier engravings after the old Italian masters Indeed it was the success of the Italian work that led to his undertaking the present series Directly after completing his work in Italy Mr Cole was asked by the managers of The Century to go to Holland and undertake the translation of the great Dutchmen In 1892 he removed from Italy to Amsterdam where he remained for a year engraving the pictures chosen for reproduction from the Holland galleries He then went back to Paris where he has remained up to the present time working from the Dutch and Flemish pictures in the Louvre and elsewhere In every instance Mr Cole has produced his engraving with the original picture before him the photograph being thrown upon the block and its insufficiencies or inequalities being corrected by consulting the original In this way absolute fidelity to the original has been obtained not only in line and in modeling but in giving the exact values of colors under light and under shadow In determining the truth of a form a light or a tone Mr Cole's long experience has made him an expert and though passing from Italy to Holland a change from line to color he has easily adapted himself to the new point of view and has interpreted the new methods with the same artistic sympathy that marked his former work About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field. As the first study of its kind, this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth-century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research. Its 19 chapters, divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians, address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently.

Bruegel to Rubens Desmond Shawe-Taylor, Jennifer Scott, 2007. Everyone is familiar with the Golden Age of Dutch art; this is an opportunity to explore its no less glorious Flemish counterpart. It is said that much of the greatest art is produced during periods of strife. In the mid-16th century, Flanders, the United Provinces in the north, modern Holland, and the Spanish Netherlands in the south, modern Belgium, was the most sophisticated society in Europe, but its learning and luxury industries were all but annihilated by the so-called Dutch Revolt and by the Eighty Years War that followed, 1568-1648. Two thirds of the works discussed here were painted during this turbulent period, including Pieter Bruegel's Massacre of the Innocents of 1567. During the Renaissance, the Low Countries attained a flawless technique of painting and the highest standards of craftsmanship. This tradition survived during even the worst years of the war.

Dutch Painters of the Nineteenth Century: Johannes Bosboom Max Rooses, 1898 The New International Encyclopædia Frank Moore Colby, Talcott Williams, 1922 Metsu, 1906 Jacob Van Ruisdael Seymour Slive, 2001-01-01. If you know the 26 letters of the alphabet and can count to 99 or are just learning, you'll love Tana Hoban's brilliant creation. This innovative concept book is two books in one.
