Sinnema, 2005 Translated from Dutch to English this collection of letters offers a unique perspective on the early pioneer years of the Dutch community in southeastern Alberta The letters provide first hand accounts of the preparations to immigrate the hardships of the pioneer years and the transformation from the most basic homesteading conditions to progressive rural communities including the towns of Granum Monarch and Nobleford In fact within just a decade new railroads towns churches schools and even telephone service had been established Based on extensive research the book also includes maps archival photographs and an appendix listing all the Dutch settlers in the region between the years of 1903 and 1914 The First Dutch Settlement in Alberta is an invaluable and fascinating collection of primary source material that offers a wealth of information for genealogists and historians and celebrates the pioneering spirit of Alberta's early Dutch community Boer, Burgher, Businessman Maren Dingfelder Stone, 2007 The study is an imagological analysis of Dutch immigrants in the United States giving insights into stereotyping identity formation and the marketing of ethnicity Tracing Dutch American literary images through four centuries of writing in America the study emphasizes the continuity of Dutch American history The assessment of images in their socio cultural context reveals the disparity between literary and socio cultural perception the latter of which often evokes Dutch ethnicity in the United States as a mere means to an end While the study ascertains which images of Dutch Americans have dominated public perception it also investigates the origins of such images their persistence irrespective of time and location and the reasons for their fluctuating interpretations
