Christ and the Altar Fire: Sacrifice as Deification in Matthias Scheeben David Augustine, 2025-01-01 For renowned nineteenth century German dogmatic theologian Matthias Scheeben the divinely instituted liturgical cult of the Old Testament is replete with soteriological import figuratively signifying not only Christ's saving work and the sacramental worship of the New Testament but also the transformation and elevation of the rational creature by divine grace Scheeben's distinctive use of sacrificial concepts is rooted in his underlying view of sacrifice as primarily perfective directed to the glorification of God and constituted by the conversion of the offering into a pleasing and acceptable aroma via ritual burning with God given fire In Christ and the Altar Fire David Augustine offers an in depth study of Scheeben s soteriology of sacrifice providing a comprehensive analysis of his theology of sacrifice as well as a detailed examination of his sacrificial construal of Christ s person his saving work and its application to others At the heart of this account is Scheeben s understanding of Christ s sacrifice as encompassing his entire paschal mystery passion death resurrection and ascension itself a passage of glorification that serves as the site and source of deifying and latreutic nuptial union As he shows Scheeben employs the altar fire typology to establish a unity of cross and glory that fully maintains the atoning and meritorious significance of Christ s saving death Displaying careful attentiveness to Scheeben s historical context and to the contours of his substantial corpus Augustine also brings Scheeben s biblically inflected dogmatic theology into dialogue with contemporary biblical and theological scholarship showcasing the enduring relevance of his thought

The Sacraments Francis Joseph Hall,1921

The Eucharist in the West Edward J. Kilmartin,2015-09-22 In the light of its own history the Catholic theology of the Eucharist as it is generally understood today is revealed as a splinter tradition whose deficiencies call for fundamental reformulation The valid aspects of that theology for example the recovery of the role of the Holy Spirit in the new Roman Eucharistic Prayers must be identified and integrated with the faith and practice of the first theological millennium when the lex orandi was not so dominated by the lex credendi In the third theological millennium more attention to the content and structure of the classical Eucharistic Prayers of both East and West will result in a Catholic systematic theology of eucharistic sacrifice that is not only truer to its biblical and patristic foundations but also of ecumenical import closer to some of the theological insights of the Protestant Reformers These highlights of The Eucharist in the West illustrate the great value of this posthumous work Conceptually complete but in only rough draft form at the time of Father Kilmartin s death it has been edited and prepared for publication by Robert J Daly SJ Chapter one describes the characteristics of the eucharistic theology of the Western Latin Fathers Chapter two identifies the more important orientations and developments of the Catholic tradition from early medieval Scholasticism up to the first part of the twelfth century Chapter three singles out the special contribution of early Scholasticism to Latin eucharistic theology Chapter four functions as a bridge from early Scholasticism to high Scholasticism by outlining the general approach to a synthetic theology of the Eucharist which was obtained at the beginning of the thirteenth century Chapter five treats eucharistic theology from high Scholasticism to the Council of Trent Chapter six summarizes the dogmatic teaching of the Council of Trent This is followed in Chapter seven by a treatment of salient features of post Tridentine Eucharistic theology Chapter eight includes an analysis of the practice and theology of Mass stipends Chapter nine includes a detailed analysis of Aquinas s theology of the eucharistic sacrifice Chapter ten offers an account of some recent contributions to the formulation of a theology of the eucharistic sacrifice which have contributed to the modern average Roman Catholic synthesis Robert J Daly SJ is a professor of theology at Boston College and former editor of Theological Studies Edward J Kilmartin SJ 1923 1994 professor for liturgical theology at the Pontifical Oriental Institute in Rome taught theology first at the Weston Jesuit School of Theology and later at Boston College He served as director of the doctoral program in liturgical studies at the University of Notre Dame
