by Lee Solkey

Born and raised in the Western United States, author Lee Solkey ventured East of the Rockies just once, for a short visit. A resident of Las Vegas for 25 years, Solkey made a seven-year career out of dealing 21 after learning the ropes solely to complete work on a Master's Thesis. ("Despite its many drawbacks, the job offers plenty of monetary incentive to continue," Solkey notes.) This book, revealing for the first time the special pressures and emotional stress of a very specialized profession, is a spin off of that thesis.

Prior to "Dummy Up and Deal", Solkey co-authored two children's books, published several popular short stories and a number of technical papers in the fields of Anthropology and Sociology.

Since writing this book, the author has retired to a remote part of Mexico to do field research for a Ph.D. in Anthropology.
