Dunhuang Manuscript Forgeries:

Dunhuang Manuscript Forgeries Susan Whitfield,2002 The discovery in 1900 of a cave at Dunhuang Gansu Province China containing tens of thousands of pre 11th century manuscripts scrolls has been of enormous significance for Buddhist central Asian and Chinese history Yet it appears that some of the manuscripts reportedly from the cave and now in collections in London Beijing St Petersburg and Japan are forgeries produced in the decades following the discovery by both local forgers at Dunhuang and at the home of a Chinese bibliophile Li Shengduo who acquired many original manuscripts in 1910 Professor Fujieda from Kyoto University Japan was the leading figure in bringing the problem of forgeries to light and the results of his work and that of leading scientists conservators and scholars in the fields using analysis of the calligraphy use of ancient words chemical testing of the dyes and paper fibres are brought together in this discussion of this issue

Dunhuang Manuscript Culture Imre Galambos,2020-12-07 Dunhuang Manuscript Culture explores the world of Chinese manuscripts from ninth tenth century Dunhuang an oasis city along the network of pre modern routes known today collectively as the Silk Roads The manuscripts have been discovered in 1900 in a sealed off side chamber of a Buddhist cave temple where they had lain undisturbed for for almost nine hundred years The discovery comprised tens of thousands of texts written in over twenty different languages and scripts including Chinese Tibetan Old Uighur Khotanese Sogdian and Sanskrit This study centres around four groups of manuscripts from the mid ninth to the late tenth centuries a period when the region was an independent kingdom ruled by local families The central argument is that the manuscripts attest to the unique cultural diversity of the region during this period exhibiting alongside obvious Chinese elements the heavy influence of Central Asian cultures As a result it was much less Chinese than commonly portrayed in modern scholarship The book makes a contribution to the study of cultural and linguistic interaction along the Silk Roads

Fakes and Forgeries of Written Artefacts from Ancient Mesopotamia to Modern China Cécile Michel,Michael Friedrich,2020-11-23 Fakes and forgeries are objects of fascination This volume contains a series of thirteen articles devoted to fakes and forgeries of written artefacts from the beginnings of writing in Mesopotamia to modern China The studies emphasise the subtle distinctions conveyed by an established vocabulary relating to the reproduction of ancient artefacts and production of artefacts claiming to be ancient from copies replicas and imitations to fakes and forgeries Fakes are often a response to a demand from the public or scholarly milieu or even both The motives behind their production may be economic political religious or personal aspiring to fame or simply playing a joke Fakes may be revealed by combining the study of their contents codicological epigraphic and palaeographic analyses and scientific investigations However certain famous unsolved cases still continue to defy technology today no matter how advanced it is Nowadays one can find fakes in museums and private collections alike they abound on the antique market mixed with real artefacts that have often been looted The scientific community s attitude to such objects calls for ethical reflection

Manuscripts and Travellers Sam van Schaik,Imre Galambos,2011-11-30 This study is based on a manuscript which was carried by a Chinese monk through the monasteries of the Hexi corridor as part of his pilgrimage from Wutaishan to India The manuscript has been created as a composite object from three separate documents with Chinese and Tibetan texts on them Included is a series of Tibetan letters of introduction addressed to the heads of monasteries along the route functioning as a passport when passing through the region The manuscript dates to the late 960s coinciding with the large pilgrimage movement during the reign of Emperor Taizu of the Northern Song recorded in transmitted sources Therefore it is very likely that this is a unique contemporary testimony of the movement of which our pilgrim was also part Complementing extant historical sources the manuscript provides evidence for the high degree of ethnic cultural and linguistic diversity in Western China during this period

The Diamond Sutra in Chinese Culture Yongyou, Yongyou Shi, 2010 In The Diamond Sutra in Chinese Culture Venerable Yong You examines the varied history of the Diamond Sutra and its profound effect upon Chinese Buddhism as well as its wide ranging impact on Chinese religion culture art literature folklore and technology Beginning from the introduction of the Diamond Sutra in China until the Song dynasty Venerable Yong You delves deeply into the Dunhuang collections comprised of the oldest Chinese Buddhist manuscripts in the world to offer insightful new research and a compelling perspective on the influence of this very important text The Silk Road British Library, 2004

Books in Numbers Lucille Chia, 2007 This collection of essays is a result of an academic conference entitled Books in Numbers held in celebration of the seventy fifth anniversary of the Harvard Yenching Library The aim of this conference was to celebrate the book culture of East Asia by comparing and contrasting the development of manuscript and print culture in each of the separate cultural areas of the region China Korea Japan Vietnam and Central Asia The essays do not attempt to offer a complete picture of the history of writing and the book in East Asia but rather they hope to make a modest contribution by highlighting the differential developments in each of the cultural regions as they were influenced by political economic social and cultural factors
