Duplex Planet 172:

Earth as an Evolving Planetary System Kent C. Condie, 2021-09-18 Earth as an Evolving Planetary System Fourth Edition discusses key topics dealing with the evolution and interaction through time of Earth's crust, mantle, core, atmosphere, hydrosphere, and biosphere. It addresses the questions of why Earth is unique among planets of the solar system and how the various subsystems in the planet have interacted over 4.6 billion years in the habitable planet that we live on. This new edition includes over 100 new pages of material, data, and images and is a key reference for students and researchers in Earth and planetary sciences. Earth as an Evolving Planetary System Fourth Edition includes new material that has become available since the third edition, including new sections on the Mid-lithosphere discontinuity, geoneutrinos, mantle oxidation, continental emergence, Earth cycles, new chapter and recycling processes, the evolution of Earth from a stagnant lid to a plate tectonic regime, the controversy over how the continents have grown when plate tectonics began, and exoplanets. Presents comprehensive coverage of the Earth's interacting systems through time. Compares and contrasts Earth to other terrestrial planets with very different histories. Includes a new and exciting chapter on Earth's cycles and their possible origins.

Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen, 2015-08-21 How artists' magazines in all their ephemerality, materiality, and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system. During the 1960s and 1970s, magazines became an important new site of artistic practice, functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art. Artists created works expressly for these mass-produced, hand-edited pages, using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery. In Artists' Magazines, Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday, the 1960s to the 1980s, and compiles a comprehensive, illustrated directory of hundreds of others. Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen (1965-1971), a multimedia magazine in a box; issues included Super 8 films, flexi-disc records, critical writings, artists' postage stamps, and collectible chapbooks; Avalanche (1970-1976), which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist-designed contributions; and Real Life (1979-1994), published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures Generation. These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content; they cast their homemade, do-it-yourself quality against the slickness of an art forum, and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day. Artists' Magazines, featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and content, offers an essential guide to a little-explored medium. Notes from Underground Stephen Duncombe, 1997 Slug, Lettuce, Pathetic Life, I Hate Brenda, Dishwasher, Punk and Destroy, Sweet Jesus, Scrambled Eggs, Maximunrocknroll; these are among the thousands of publications which circulate in a subterranean world rarely illuminated by the searchlights of mainstream media commentary. In this multifarious, underground, Pynchonesque misfits' rant and rave fans eulogize hobbyists' obsessions. Together they form a low-tech publishing network of extraordinary richness and variety Welcome to the realm of zines In this the first comprehensive study of zine publishing Stephen Duncombe describes their origins in early twentieth century science fiction cults their more proximate roots in 60s counter culture and their rapid proliferation in the wake of punk rock While Notes from Underground pays full due to the political importance of zines as a vital web of popular culture it also notes the shortcomings of their utopian and escapist outlook in achieving fundamental social change Duncombe s book raises the larger question of whether it is possible to rebel culturally within a consumer society that eats up cultural rebellion Packed with extracts and illustrations from a wide array of publications past and present Notes from Underground is the first book to explore the full range of zine culture and provides a definitive portrait of the contemporary underground in all its splendor and misery The Automobile Trade Directory ,1914 Mechanical Philosophy, Horology, and Astronomy ... New edition William Benjamin CARPENTER,1857
