How Communities Build Stronger Schools A. Dodd, J. Konzal, 2016-03-05 If it takes a village to raise a child Anne Wescott Dodd and Jean L Konzal feel that it takes a community to make a school Not content with the idea of a school being contained within four walls and existing only for a few hours every day Dodd and Konzal know that a school which looks after the complete child exists far beyond its four walls and for the whole 24 hours in each day They present a radical democratic vision of the public school where everyone not just students teachers and parents plays a part in shaping our children and consequently our future

Social Innovation and Sustainability Transition Geoff Desa, Xiangping Jia, 2022-11-09 This book uses a historical and modern lens to reimagine the role that Extension could potentially play in catalyzing reciprocal co learning relationships between Land Grant Universities and their diverse local constituencies The establishment of statewide extension systems was once seen as a way to ensure that Land Grant Universities would be accessible and responsive to all of a state s residents Extension systems continue to offer a front door to a major public university in almost every county of the United States but they tend to be viewed primarily as a way to translate science or distribute information from the university to the public This books argues for the importance of Extension and shows that we are conceiving of this system too narrowly Only by retelling the stories of the Extension and getting people to see themselves as part of the story can we imagine a different future in which state
