Eating Disorders And Magical Control Of The Body Treatment Through Art Therapy:

Eating Disorders and Magical Control of the Body Mary Levens, 2002-01-04 People with eating disorders often make desperate attempts to exert magical control over their bodies in response to the threats they experienced in relationships. Mary Levens takes the reader into the realm of magical thinking and its effect on ideas about eating and the body through a sensitive exploration of the images patients create in art therapy in which themes of cannibalism constantly recur. Drawing on anthropology, religion, and literature as well as psychoanalysis, she discusses the significance of these images and their implications for treatment of patients with eating disorders. Medical Art Therapy with Children Cathy A. Malchiodi, 1999 Drawing on case material from a variety of situations, the book describes medical research on medical art therapy with children and practical approaches to using art activities with them. The text looks at children with burns, HIV, asthma, and cancer. Drawing from Within Lisa D. Hinz, 2006 Drawing from Within is an introductory guide for those wanting to explore the use of art with clients with eating disorders. Art therapy is a particularly effective therapeutic intervention for this group as it allows them to express uncomfortable thoughts and feelings through artistic media rather than having to explain them verbally. Lisa D. Hinz outlines the areas around which the therapist can design effective treatment programmes covering family influences, body image, self-acceptance, problem solving, and spirituality. Each area is discussed in a separate chapter and is accompanied by suggestions for exercises with advice on materials to use and how to implement them. Case examples show how a therapy programme can be tailored to the individual client, and photographs of client artwork illustrate the text throughout. Practical and accessible to practitioners at all levels of experience, this book gives new hope to therapists and other mental health professionals who want to explore the potential of using art with clients with eating disorders.

Counseling the Contemporary Woman Suzanne Degges-White, Marcela Kopic, Wendy Killam, 2020-05-22 This book provides a comprehensive exploration of the challenges women may face as they navigate the multiple roles that they carry. Attention is given to the unique cultural identities that women embody, and suggestions are provided to help counselors acknowledge the various aspects of each client's intersectional identity. In addition to theory, we provide suggestions for practical application of relevant interventions and strategies for helping women achieve their goals. A foundation is provided that explores the multiple layers of development that occur during adolescence, adulthood, midlife, and older adulthood. Women face numerous challenges related to identity development and relationships. These challenges can generate psychological and emotional distress that lead women to seek professional assistance in finding solutions to their issues. With more choices than in generations past, women can face unexpected and unanticipated challenges and barriers to their individual and relational development. This book is organized around contemporary developmental and relational rites of passage women experience in adulthood. Traditional rites of passage include birth, menarche, marriage, and death. These events still hold significance, but women's lives today follow expanded and complex trajectories. Numerous transitions, such as attending college, navigating employment opportunities and the relational challenges that women face in various areas of life are presented and addressed in this book from a clinician's perspective providing practitioners with insight and practical knowledge. In this book we cover choices related to such topics as career relationships, parenthood and support networks. We also explore the struggles that women face including abuse, depression, anxiety, feelings of low self-worth, loss and addictions. Best practices in counseling women are highlighted and utilized in case study examples. The relationships created by women impact their lives and this book helps the reader to gain insight into how women can take ownership for their relationships and choices.

Eating Disorders Raymond Lemberg, Leigh Cohn, 1999. Offers a collection of articles which discuss the causes, symptoms, health and psychological effects and treatments of eating disorders and provides a directory of facilities and programs designed to help people with these disorders.

Art Therapy in Palliative Care Mandy Pratt, Michele Wood, 2015-11-17. This book provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the practice and results of art therapy in palliative care. It includes first-hand accounts from both therapists and clients in a variety of palliative care settings including hospices and hospitals, patients' own homes, prisons, AIDS patients, adolescent griefwork groups. These case studies include examples of client art work and illustrate clearly how art therapy can allow patients to regain feelings of control over their lives.

The Cumulative Book Index, 1996. A world list of books in the English language.

Books in Print, 1991      Development and Diversity Doug Sandle, 1998. Art therapy is increasingly recognized as an important contributor to psychotherapy and dynamic counseling and is widening its sphere of practice and application. Art therapists are working not just within traditional psychiatric services but within the fields of social and community care and in specialist areas such as prisons. Increasingly, art therapists are dealing with specific problems ranging from child abuse to eating disorders, often as members of multidisciplinary teams or special units.
