Ecce Homo (Classic Reprint) Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche,2017-09-17 Excerpt from Ecce Homo As it is my intention within a very short time to confront my fellow men with the very greatest demand that has ever yet been made upon them it seems to me above all necessary to declare here who and what I am As a matter of fact this ought to be pretty well known already for I have not held my tongue about myself But the disparity which exists between the greatness of my task and the smallness of my contemporaries is revealed by the fact that people have neither heard me nor yet seen me I live on my own self made credit and it is probably only a prejudice to suppose that I am Alive at all I do but require to speak to any one of the scholars who come to the oberengadine in the summer in order to convince myself that I am not alive Under these circumstances it is a duty and one against which my customary reserve and to a still greater degree the pride of my instincts rebel to say Listen For I am sure and we a person For fear en s sake do not confound me will any one else About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an
