Ecological Education In Everyday Life Alpha 2000:

Ecological Education in Everyday Life Canadian Commission for Unesco, Unesco Institute for Education, 2002-01-01 Western and Arab researchers look at adult education and discuss how an ecological approach to education focussing on the cultural traditions and natural environments of communities can be more useful than education in specialized institutions

Alpha 2000 - Ecological Education in Everyday Life Jean-Paul Hautecoeur, 2003-01-01 Sixteen researchers from different disciplines and from ten different countries in the Western and Arab worlds look at adult education and discuss how an ecological approach focusing on the cultural traditions and natural environments of communities can be more useful than education in specialized institutions In their humanist ecological vision of the world the contributors aim to provide alternatives to neo capitalist thinking and promote local education and development through international cooperation

International Handbook of Research on Environmental Education Robert B. Stevenson, Michael Brody, Justin Dillon, Arjen E.J. Wals, 2013-05-02 The environment and contested notions of sustainability are increasingly topics of public interest political debate and legislation across the world Environmental education journals now publish research from a wide variety of methodological traditions that show linkages between the environment health development and education The growth in scholarship makes this an opportune time to review and synthesize the knowledge base of the environmental education EE field The purpose of this 51 chapter handbook is not only to illuminate the most important concepts findings and theories that have been developed by EE research but also to critically examine the historical progression of the field its current debates and controversies what is still missing from the EE research agenda and where that agenda might be headed Published for the American Educational Research Association AERA The Palgrave International Handbook on Adult and Lifelong Education and Learning Marcella Milana, Sue Webb, John Holford, Richard Waller, Peter Jarvis, 2017-10-10 This Handbook provides a wide ranging frame of reference for researching adult and lifelong education and learning With contributions from scores of established and newer scholars from six continents the volume covers a diverse range of geopolitical and social territories across the world Drawing on the multiple heritages that underpin research on education and learning in adulthood this Handbook addresses the inner tensions between adult education adult learning lifelong education and lifelong learning by using current research and theorizations from disciplinary backgrounds including philosophy psychology biology and neuroscience anthropology sociology history political science and economics It provides an explicit discussion of the differences and tensions between adult and lifelong education and learning and locates these in different policy and historical contexts theories and practices It explores a variety of discipline based theoretical perspectives and highlights how these have influenced and been influenced by research in the education and learning of adults The Handbook also explores the inevitable frictions and dilemmas these present and carefully examines the role of the international dimension in researching education and learning in formal non formal and informal contexts beyond traditional schooling This state of the art comprehensive Handbook is the first of its kind to explore adult education lifelong education and lifelong learning fully as distinct activities on an international scale It will be an indispensable reference resource for students of education at undergraduate and postgraduate levels and for academic researchers professionals and policy makers concerned with adult and community education further and vocational education or work based training and human resource development

LEARNING WITH ADULTS Leona M. English, Peter Mayo, 2012-12-25 This book is written at a time when our own field of adult education is under assault from a variety of capitalist and neoconservative forces pressuring us to turn away from the causes of criticality lifelong learning and education for freedom Rather than succumb to these pressures we have hope that our long term goals of education for life and living can and will be accomplished alongside professional and vocational education This book offers new insight into what is a very dark moment of our human civilization From the preface by Dr Carlos Alberto Torres Professor GSEIS Director Paulo Freire Institute University of California at Los Angeles The book offers decidedly critical and international perspectives on various aspects of adult education especially on state citizenship and neoliberal policies Critical in both content and method it is at the same time the part of the collective work needed to advance the Bel m call to action by furthering awareness and capacity in the field of adult education Dr Katarina Popovic Professor Universit t Duisburg Essen University of Belgrade DBB International In the midst of diminishing resources and growing inequalities English and Mayo provide an incisive and much needed critique of adult education in ways that highlight not only its historical and philosophical roots but also its major significance to the practice of democracy In a direct challenge to the neoliberal accountability craze Learning with Adults offers a rigorous political reading of the field one that systematically challenges oppressive educational policies and practices while affirming an emancipatory vision of civic engagement Truly an informative treatise that sheds new light on the education of adults Dr Antonia Darder Professor Leavey Presidential Endowed Chair in Education Loyola Marymount University Los Angeles Leona English and Peter Mayo challenge hegemonic assumptions and ideas while offering a constructive alternative based on the principle of working with learners and not just for them Their analysis is accessible enough for newcomers to the field while the authors wide ranging coverage and radical approach provide refreshing and challenging messages for the most experienced adult educator Up to date genuinely international and passionately committed Learning with Adults is a great book Dr John Field Professor University of Stirling Cover design by Annemarie Mayo
