Broadview Reader:

The Broadview Reader [text (large Print)] Jane Flick, Rosengarten, Herbert, 1991      The Broadview Reader Jane Flick, Herbert Rosengarten, 1998      The Broadview Reader in Book History Michelle Levy, Tom Mole, 2014-10-23 Book History has emerged as one of the most exciting new interdisciplinary fields of study in the humanities By focusing on the production circulation and reception of the book in all its forms it has transformed the study of history literature and culture The Broadview Book History Reader is the most complete and up to date introduction available to this area of study The reader reprints 33 key essays in the field grouped conceptually and provided with headnotes explanatory footnotes an introduction a chronology and a glossary of terms      The Broadview Reader - Third Edition Jane Flick, Herbert Rosengarten, 1998-02-16 This new edition includes most of the essays that have made The Broadview Reader one of the most popular first year textbooks in Canada and adds 18 fresh selections As before essays are gathered into groups by topic but the editors also provide alternative tables of contents by rhetorical patterns and devices and by chronology Each selection is followed by a wide range of questions and suggestions for discussions and the reader also includes a glossary and biographical notes Most of the new selections are of recent vintage but in recognition of the degree to which modern issues often have a long and honourable history the editors have also added several selections by nineteenth century writers Also the reader now includes a full section on Women in Society The book's balance of Canadian and non Canadian writers has been maintained as has the range of different styles and different essay lengths that are included In all the new edition includes 80 selections      The Female Reader in the English Novel Joe Bray, 2008-09-25 In the second half of the eighteenth century the female reader was a frequent topic of cultural debate and moral concern This book examines the variety of ways in which women read the social world in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth century novel      The Preface Ross K. Tangedal, 2021-11-06 Building on insights from the fields of textual criticism bibliography narratology authorship studies and book history The Preface American Authorship in the Twentieth Century examines the role that prefaces played in the development of professional authorship in America Many of the prefaces written by American writers in the twentieth century catalogue the shifting landscape of a more self consciously professionalized trade one fraught with tension and compromise and influenced by evolving reading publics With analyses of Willa Cather Ring Lardner F Scott Fitzgerald Ernest Hemingway Robert Penn Warren and Toni Morrison Ross K Tangedal argues that writers used prefaces as a means of expanding and complicating authority over their work and ultimately as a way to write about their careers Tangedal's approach offers a new way of examining American writers in the evolving literary marketplace of the twentieth century      The Mountain and the Politics of Representation Jenny Hall, Martin Hall, 2023-11-01 The stories we tell published or otherwise condition our mountain experiences in practice and reinforce cultural memory and representation Yet as this book and the authors within it set out to demonstrate if we look beyond the boundaries of this singular white history there is a rich diversity of stories to tell This volume contributes to a growing body of scholarship that calls for a heterogeneity of voices in mountain memoir genres For the first time this diverse scholarship interrogates how mountaineering literary and media culture impact bodies spaces and places in order to nuance how commodification intersects across social categories and is embodied in multi dimensional ways In this volume we explore a burgeoning tradition of mountaineering literature of cinema and of memoir to appreciate difference beyond the habitual heroic white male adventurer that dominates screens and bookshelves Through exploring multidimensional axes of social differentiation from gender race class and age to dis ability and sexuality the book will demonstrate how commodification is embodied through representation in mountaineering literature media film and memoir in mountaineering spaces Amongst our aims this book intends to understand how multiple social dimensions overlap and work to produce independent systems of exclusion and inclusion that focus on untraditional ways to be a mountaineer

The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose Tammy Roberts,2002 A substantial selection of classic essays allows readers to trace the history of the essay from Swift to Woolf and Orwell and beyond A selection of the finest of contemporary essays from Joan Didion to Witold Rybcynski provides a broad sample of the genre in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries The academic essays begin with classic selections from such writers as Darwin and Charles Lyell but the emphasis is on recent decades Emphasized as well are academic papers or essays that have been especially influential or controversial from J Tuzo Wilson s writing on continental drift to Judith Rich Harris s argument that the influence of peers may be at least as influential in the formation of personality as that of parents Works of different lengths levels of difficulty and subject matter are all represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays Also included in the text is a range of questions and suggestions for discussion The text selections are numbered by paragraph for ready reference

The Broadview Introduction to Book History Michelle Levy,Tom Mole,2017-04-30 Book history has emerged in the last twenty years as one of the most important new fields of interdisciplinary study It has produced new interpretations of major historical events has made possible new approaches to history literature media and culture and presents a distinctive historical perspective on current debates about the future of the book The Broadview Introduction to Book History provides the most comprehensive and up to date introduction to this field Written in a lively accessible style chapters on materiality textuality printing and reading intermediality and remediation guide readers through numerous key concepts illustrated with examples from literary texts and historical documents produced across a wide historical range An ideal text for undergraduate and graduate courses in book history it offers a road map to this dynamic inter disciplinary field
