Sport in Films Emma Poulton,Martin Roderick,2019-05-30 Sport offers everything a good story should have heroes and villains triumph and disaster achievement and despair tension and drama Consequently sport makes for a compelling film narrative and films in turn are a vivid medium for sport Yet despite its regularity as a central theme in motion pictures constructions and representations of sport and athletes have been marginalised in terms of serious analysis within the longstanding academic study of films and documentaries In this collection it is the critical study of film and its connections to sport that are examined The collection is one of the first of its kind to examine the ways in which sport has been used in films as a metaphor for other areas of social life Among the themes and issues explored by the contributors are Morality tales in which good triumphs over evil The representation and ideological framing of social identities including class gender race and nationality The representation of key issues pertinent to sport including globalization politics commodification consumerism and violence The meanings spoken by films and the various readings which audiences make of them This is a timely
