Bresson and Others Bert Cardullo, 2009 A number of writers have attempted to capture Robert Bresson s style as well as his substance with such terms as minimalist austere ascetic elliptical autonomous pure even gentle Most famously Paul Schrader once called Bresson s films transcendental while Susan Sontag described them as spiritual Both these critics thus extended in anglicized form a tendency that had early been dominant in Bresson criticism in France the attempt made by such Catholic writers as Andre Bazin Henri Agel Roger Leenhardt and Amedee Ayfre to understand Bresson s work in religious terms seeing his camera as a kind of god and the material world as paradoxically a thing of the spirit That attempt in Sontag s essay led to the introduction of Bresson to the New York based avant garde of the 1960s and 1970s whose films such as Richard Serra s Hand Catching Lead 1968 for one show the influence of the French director s severe reductivist style Jean Luc Godard of course needed no such critical introduction to Robert Bresson for in his iconoclasm and integrity in his rejection of the Gallic Cinema du Papa as well as in his embrace of film as an independent art Bresson was one of the heroes of the young directors who constituted the French New Wave in the early 1960s So much so that Godard was moved to say in Cahiers du cinema in 1957 that Bresson is French cinema as Dostoyevsky is the Russian novel and Mozart is German music The result is that Bresson has undeniably influenced a slew of contemporary European filmmakers including Chantal Akerman Olivier Assayas Laurent Cantet Alain Cavalier Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne Claire Denis Jacques Doillon Bruno Dumont Michael Haneke Benoit Jacquot and Maurice Pialat not to speak of his influence on Asian and American cinema Bresson and Others Spiritual Syle in the Cinema is an attempt to document this influence through essays on fifteen international directors who followed in Bresson's wake who in fact may have influenced him Carl Dreyer or who contemporaneously worked veins similar to those found in Bresson's films Ingmar Bergman Yasujiro Ozu These essays are preceded by an introduction to the cinema of Robert Bresson and followed by film credits a bibliography of criticism and an index The subject of Bresson and Others then may specifically be Bressonian cinema but in a general sense it could also be said to be spirit and matter or film and faith
